SECTION ONE

THIS BOOK IS AFFECTIONATELY DEDICATED TO MY GRANDMOTHER
JULIA ANN HOLLINGSWORTH

I have with pleasure and with the assistance of many members of the family added to the memoranda of names collected by Wm. B. Hollingsworth of Baltimore and printed in 1884, corrected some errors, and no doubt made others. Corrections and additions will be appreciated.

There are thousands of the descendants of Valentine Hollingsworth, Sr., not included, because I did not have their addresses.

It is to be hoped that some member of the family will, some day, write a "History of the Hollingsworths," as many of them have helped to make history in the United States since 1682.

Although I haven't written a "History of the Hollingsworths," I have attempted to add to the descendants of the Hollingsworths by recording the families who have descended from Aaron Hollingsworth and Ruth Rogers. G VII-6. Refer to page III, Section Two.

HOLLINGSWORTH HALL

CHURCH. NORTHEASTERN PART OF CHESHIRE, ENGLAND

THE Hollingsworths have held their own all along the ages. They were an old Saxon family said to have settled in the North-eastern part of Cheshire, as early as 1022, in which year the ancestral estate, Hollingsworth Manor, in Cheshire, was purchased. The name represents a locality, from the estate of that name, near Mottram, in the county in question. The name comes from the two words, "holly" and "worth," a farm, meaning a farm of holly trees. Annals dating from the Norman conquest, speak of "the hundred of Macclesfield or Maxfield," known in the Domesday survey as "the hundred of Hamstan," and one of the Manors mentioned in these ancient books is that of Hollingsworth Manor, situated on the edge of the great woods of Macclesfield. The visitation of Cheshire by the official herald in the year 1580 includes "John Hollingsworth, Gent," and "Robert Hollingsworth," among the gentry residing in the hundred of Macclesfield." A further record speaks of Robert Hollingsworth of Hollingsworth Hall, from whom the family is descended, and who was Magistrate for the counties of Chester and Lancaster. The church of the family and the hall, both several centuries old, are still standing, and upon both are emblazoned the family Coat of Arms. The late owner, Captain Robert Hollingsworth, the last representative of the English branch of the family, died in 1865. The estate is said to include 625 acres and to be valued at 20,000 pounds. Picturesque red-berried holly trees abound upon the estate, and when one realizes its nearness to the edge of the Macclesfield woods, the arms and crest handed down for generations acquire a picturesque significance. The tinctures of the shield are azure, suggestive of the blue sky, argent, of the silvery streams that flow through the woodlands, and vert, of the green leafage of the forest trees. The virtues of these colors are equally beautiful, expressing loyalty, innocence and love. The Crest is a stag, recalling the Saxon Earls of Cheshire and merry hunting scenes, and three glistening holly leaves suggest Christmas in merry England. Motto—Learn to suffer what must be borne, or, bear patiently what must be borne. The usurpation of that Saxon shire by the Norman Earl, Hugh Lupus, no doubt suggested the motto. At any rate the records state that these freemen of Hollingsworth and the seven other manors that make up Macclesfield, paid their yearly tax to the usurping earl and held their manors in undisturbed possession.

It is probable that the Hollingsworths went over to Ireland from England with other planters, early in the 17th century.

The name Hollingsworth, so widely known and honored in the United States, is spelled severally: Hollingworth, Hollonsworth, and Hollingsworth. The last spelling has been clung to by a large majority of the descendants of the founder of the family in America, who was Valentine Hollingsworth and who came to the New World from Ireland, in 1682, the year in which William Penn arrived in the Delaware, in front of which is now the city of Philadelphia, Pa. The Hollingsworth family was noted for its enterprise and industry, and many of its members were largely engaged in the manufacture of flour, and were the owners of a number of mills on the branches of the Elbe River in Cecil Co., Md., New Castle Co., Del., also in Virginia, South Carolina, and in other states, and later of shipyards, steel mills, etc.

* * * * *

The family flower or tree is the holly tree. In Kentucky and neighboring States, the holly should be transplanted in the month of August.

VALENTINE HOLLINGSWORTH, SR.

THE original immigrant ancestor of the American family of Hollingsworth was a member of the Society of Friends, and many of his descendants adhere to that faith. He was the son of Henry Hollingsworth of Belleniskcannel, Parish of Legoe, County Armagh, Ireland, and of Catherine, his wife, was born at Belleniskcannel "about the year 1632," and was married April 7, 1655, to Ann Ree, daughter of Nicholas Ree of Tanderagee, County Armagh. She was born about 1628, at Tanderagee, and died February 1, 1671. He then married, April 12, 1672, Ann Calvert, daughter of Thomas Calvert, of Dromgora, Parish of Segoe, County Armagh, and of Jane, his wife.

In 1682, Valentine Hollingsworth, Sr., and his family, accompanied by his son-in-law, Thomas Connaway, and by John Musgrave, an indented servant, sailed from Belfast for the Delaware River, arriving a few months after William Penn's arrival in the good ship "Welcome." He settled on a large plantation of nearly a thousand acres on Shelpot Creek in Brandywine Hundred, New Castle (now Del.) Co., about five miles northeast of the present city of Wilmington, and not far from Port Christian, or Christiana of the Swedes. Not long thereafter a monthly meeting was established, the sessions being mainly held at Hollingsworth's House. In 1687 he granted "unto friends for a burying place half an acre of land for y^e purpose, there being already friends buried in the spot." The section in question soon became known as the "New Worke" or "New Ark," now the thriving town of Newark, Del. That Valentine Hollingsworth was a man of extraordinary ability and influence is demonstrated from the fact that almost immediately after his arrival in the New World, he was called upon to hold office and participate in public affairs. He was a member of the first Assembly of the Province of Pennsylvania, shortly after William Penn's advent, that of 1682-3; also of the Grand Inquest empaneled October 25, 1683, to consider the famous case of Charles Pickering and others charged with counterfeiting. He served in several subsequent sessions of the Assembly, those of 1687, '88, '95 and 1700, from New Castle County, and was a Justice of the Peace from the same county. He was also a Signer of Penn's Great Charter and a member of the Pro-Provincial Council. He died about 1711. His second wife, Ann Calvert, died August 17, 1697. Both were buried in the old burial ground at Newark, Del., which he had presented to the Friends in 1687.

WILL OF ABRAHAM HOLLINGSWORTH

I, Abraham Hollingsworth, of Opeckan, in Frederick County, in the Colony of Virginia, Yeoman being weak of body, but of perfect sound mind and memory, thanks be given to God therefore calling to mind the mortality of my body, do make and ordain this, my last will and testament. That is to say, principally and first of all, I give and recommend my soul into the hands of God, that gave it, and as for my body, I recommend it to the earth to be buried in a decent manner at the discretion of my Executors hereafter named and as touching such worldly goods wherewithall it hath pleased God to bless me with in this life I give and dispose of the same in the following manner and form.

Imprimis, my will and mind is that all my just debts and funeral expenses be first paid and discharged.

Item. I give and bequeath unto my well-beloved wife Ann one of my best feather beds with the furniture thereunto belonging, also I give unto her the household furniture, likewise I give unto my wife her riding horse and her saddle.

Item. I give and bequeath unto my son George Hollingsworth Two Hundred and Fifty Acres of land, being part of the One Thousand Two Hundred and Fifty acres of land lying joining to the land I gave to Benjamin Carter on both sides of the creek. I give it to him, his heirs and assigns forever.

Item. I give and bequeath to my son-in-law Benjamin Carter and to his heirs and assigns forever Four hundred acres of land lying on both sides the Creek called the Beaverdams.

Item. I give and bequeath unto my son Isaac Hollingsworth and to his heirs and assigns forever Five Hundred Eighty-two acres of land it being the old tract together with all and singular the buildings and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in any wise appertaining.

Item. I give and bequeath unto my son George Hollingsworth the sum of Seven pounds, Ten shillings of Current money which my son Isaac Hollingsworth shall pay to him twelve months after my decease.

Item. I give and bequeath unto my daughter Lydia Nail one of my feather beds and furniture thereunto belonging.

Lastly I do hereby nominate and appoint my wife and my son in law, Louis Neill and my son Isaac Hollingsworth my executors of this my last will and testament hereby revoking, annulling and utterly making void all former and other wills and by me heretofore made.

In witness hereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the twenty-third day of September in the year of Our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Forty Eight.

ABRM. HOLLINGSWORTH. (Seal).

Signed, sealed, published and declared to be my last will and testament in the presence of

VI. Phœbe Ann⁶—Married Thomas Woolens, 1853. Lived on the original land purchased from William Penn, 1699, on the Brandywine River, Del.

From DELAWARE REPUBLICAN, Wilmington, Del., of May, 1848.

“Died at his residence, in Christiana Hundred, on the 15th inst., Joel Hollingsworth, in the 76th year of his age. The deceased was one of those few individuals whose characteristic trait was a contented disposition, never evincing a desire for more of this world than was sufficient for the maintenance of himself and family, in a plain and comfortable way. He possessed a degree of cheerfulness, calculated to render himself an agreeable and interesting companion to those with whom he associated. His memory was of the most retentive order, and was stored with many novel and interesting traditionary tales and anecdotes, connected with the early settlement of the Brandywine. His conversational powers were great, and he delighted in rendering himself entertaining and interesting to those around him. He retained a few acres of his forefather's estate, which he was enabled to cultivate with his own hands to the last year of his life. He leaves a legacy of good will and friendship to his large circle of friends and acquaintances.”

NANCY HOLLINGSWORTH AND JAMES MADISON BUTLER

DEDICATION STORY

This book is affectionately dedicated to my grandparents Nancy Hollingsworth and James Madison Butler. She was the daughter of Aaron Hollingsworth and Ruth Rogers. He was the son of Silas Butler and Louisa _____, his second wife. Both families came to Georgia from South Carolina. James came from Newberry Co. and Nancy was born in Georgia shortly after the family moved into the state.

Grandma and Grandpa had two sons and five daughters. All survived them except Nancy Hayden Butler Sorrows. When she died she left two small children, a son and a daughter. Clifford was five years old and Alma was about a year old. Alma was raised by her grandparents and Cliff went to live with Aunt Ruth and Uncle Walt Phelps. Alma never suffered for playmates because there were many cousins on adjoining farms. Clifford had nearer neighbors in town.

From the day the city schools closed in the spring until they opened in the fall our grandparents usually had a house full of grandchildren and relatives visiting from near-by Atlanta. Several of the Butler family had moved into the city because work was more plentiful and easier than making a living on the farm. It paid more, too.

Grandpa had a horse named Nell. Nell was an important part of the farm. Every Tuesday and Saturday Grandpa drove Nell to town in a wagon filled with farm produce, milk and butter, fruits, eggs and chickens and anything that could be spared from the farm. Most of the food was grown on the farm but these frequent trips with saleable items added to the family income. This allowed the buying of food items they could not grow.

During the summer Grandpa always had his wagon filled with visitors on his return trip to the farm, and going back to town, too. Grandchildren and relatives would spend a few days in the country. Grandma always had three good meals per day and snacks for the children in between meals. How good her jelly was when it was eaten between split cold biscuit for snacks! We knew nothing of peanut butter in those days.

Grandma saw to it that every one in the home attended church on Sunday. The trip was three miles there and three miles back and the sermon was usually an hour in length. The roads were country dirt roads but rain or shine they went to church.

A grandson, Candler Butler, told this one on himself after he was grown. He was wearing brown shoes and Grandma gave him a bottle of black polish to be well groomed for church. He apparently tried to resist and explain that black polish would not mix with brown shoes. He probably did not want to go to church anyway. Grandma firmly ordered him to "Polish your shoes." He did because no one ever argued with Grandma. On the trip to church they were caught in a down pour of rain. His shoes got wet and became streaked and spotted. He did not tell grandma, "I told you so!"

One of the highlights of the year for all the family was the 4th of July. We always had a big family picnic at Grant Park when the family got together for fun, frolic and good food. Those of us who lived in the country had to get up with the sun, do the farm chores, pack our dinner and leave for Grant Park early. Only too soon would we have to leave the park and return home to do the milking and night chores. The park was about six or seven miles distant but riding in a buggy with the fringe on top was a full days event.

Uncle Green and Aunt Mag Butler lived near the park. Aunt Mag would go down early and reserve tables for those of us who could not get there early. Cousin Ida Daniela always made the lemonade by the tub full; this was a great treat in those days.

The Zoo was the first attraction for the kids, to say nothing of the heavily loaded tables later. There were no automobiles then and the town folks had to depend on the trolley car for transportation.

Our grandparents were good citizens who had a strong Christian faith. They were of the Blue Stocking Presbyterian faith and did most of the cooking on Saturday for Sunday. They were good neighbors who never failed to answer a call for help when needed. They ruled their own home well. They paid their debts promptly which were few and far between. What they could not afford they went without. They believed in discipline but they used caution in meting out punishment. The children and grandchildren respected our grandparents but the children knew they were loved and respected as individuals. In return the grandparents were respected too.

Our grandparents worked hard, from sunup to sundown. Because of old age they sold their farm and moved to town where most of their children lived. Grandpa especially was never happy in town and did not live long after moving from their country home. Their children and grandchildren remembered them with love and respect.

These thoughts were written by two grandchildren, Ida Plunket Mashburn and Emma Plunket Ivy, the author of this book.

INTRODUCTION AND ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Transition from Section I to Section II

Section I of this book deals with the Hollingsworth families who are descendants of Valentine Hollingsworth. Mr. Adger Stewart compiled and published his work in 1924 and the book has long since been out of print. The author of Section Two takes no credit for Mr. Stewart's work and is glad to reproduce it exactly as he arranged it in Section I. Stewart traces the movements of part of this long line from England to Delaware, to Virginia, to North and South Carolina, to Georgia and other points in the South. Many located in Georgia and scores of them are still here.

In the early 1700s Hollingsworths moved from Virginia to North and South Carolina. It is known from land deeds that Abraham (G V) was an early settler in Laurens County, S.C. The family settled in the vicinity of Cross Hill, S.C. and became a part of the Liberty Springs Presbyterian Church when it was organized. The son of Abraham, Joseph, was deeded land by his father.

The author could not find the grave of Abraham in the large cemetery at the Liberty Springs churchyard. A brother of Joseph is buried there and his family stayed in that community when Joseph moved to Georgia. This brother's name was Robert. Another brother of Joseph was named Moses who is buried at Smyrna Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Newton County, Ga. (now Rockdale). The slabs covering Joseph's grave and that of his wife, Rosannah Nichols Hollingsworth, carry the names of all their children, their birthdates and whom they married.

A story carried in Section II is the history of the Smyrna Presbyterian Church. This story states that the church was organized Feb. 11, 1827 and that Joseph was ordained and installed as a Ruling Elder. He had previously held this office in the Liberty Springs Church in South Carolina.

The author's purpose in compiling Section II was to tie Section I to some of the present generation of Hollingsworths. Look on pages 10 and 21 of Section I and you will find the family of Aaron Hollingsworth (G VII) and his wife Ruth Rogers. You will notice that there were eleven children, three of whom died early. This leaves eight children who are to be accounted for, who married and had families of their own.

The author's objective was to research these eight children and add to them with later generations right down to the last baby born into these families. The result is Section II of this book.

It would be impossible to do such a study of every Hollingsworth child in those early generations. When you take into consideration that Section II of this book is a study of only one child of a past generation and consider it's length. You can see that it would take many volumes to do such a study of each child's family named in Section I and Section II. That is simply too great a job for the author of Section II. There are errors in Section II. It is impossible to compile such a book, without errors, when human beings are the contributors. Errors are made by human beings. Mr. Adger Stewart graciously admits that Section I has errors, too. For these errors the author deeply apologizes.

To those who have helped with information the author would like to express a hearty "Thank you". So many individuals have helped until it would be impossible to name each one individually. Most of the information is documented by some member of his, or her, particular family.

To my sisters, Mabel P. Shepherd, Ida P. Mashburn, and Hayden P. Bohanan special thanks are due. They really should be co-authors of this book. One in particular "beat the bushes" in the Atlanta area making contacts and helping in any way she could.

Thanks go to Mrs. Carolyn Burt for typing the manuscript for Section II.

The author will not be around to add to future generations. It is hoped that those who are younger will keep their lines current. If some future "goof" decides to research the future generations it is hoped that as they expand these families they will have the full cooperation of those who are in their generation.

EMMA PLUNKET IVY

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH OF THE AUTHOR

EMMA PLUNKET IVY, born March 20, 1899, DeKalb County, Georgia, to David Filmore Plunket and Mary Spratling Butler Plunket. She was married to John Swanton Ivy of Atlanta in 1921. There are two children John Swanton Ivy, Jr., Mrs. Anne Giddens, and four grandsons. Lived in Decatur, Ga. for five years, then moved to Athens, Ga. in 1926 where her husband assumed the dealership of Dodge Automobiles which he has handled for over fifty years. He now is a wholesale truck dealer along with the passenger cars.

Civic life:

Served on the Board of Directors of American Red Cross, Athens, Ga. 1928-1934. Was supervisor of the Red Cross Soup Kitchen during the depression years in the 1930s. Many school children depended on this kitchen for their only good meal for a day; worked in many blood banks as a nurse and a donor; taught eight Home Nursing classes in Oconee County during World War II; served as temporary county nurse during WWII giving vaccines to many school children; there was no county nurse; served on the Board of Health for three years one year of which as chairman. Supervisor of three tonsil clinics for indigent children from all the county schools of Oconee County during the early 1940s.

Education:

She attended the public schools of DeKalb and Fulton counties; taught school in DeKalb County in a country setting and taught grades one through four after only one year at the State Normal School in Athens. In 1918 she entered Piedmont Hospital, Atlanta, and was graduated in 1921 with an R.N. degree. She returned to the University of Georgia in 1951 and was graduated in 1955 with a major in Psychology. She used this experience in giving Intelligent tests at the Rabun Gap School in Rabun County, at irregular periods, for several years and tested, usually, children who were not doing their best work in this school.

Church Life:

She was one of the founders of Friendship Presbyterian Church in 1947 which was organized by Athens Presbytery; served as Historian of the Athens Presbyterial and the Georgia Synodical for six years each. Later, from 1956 to 1959 she served as Synodical President of Georgia. She served as Chairman of the Women's Advisory Council, in 1959. This Council was composed of one representative each from sixteen states; was a member of Synod's Council for three years; was Dean of the Georgia Synodical Training School for three years and a member of the Mission Haven Board at Columbia Seminary for six years; also a member of Columbia Friendship Circle at Columbia Theological Seminary for six years. Was sent to Mexico on a caravan by the Board of Woman's Work in 1957.

Travel:

She has traveled extensively with her husband. They have been to Canada, Hawaii, twice, to England, Monaco, Italy, France, Greece, Egypt, Switzerland, Israel, Jordan, the Orient, and the Western United States.

As an author:

She has written four books on her family's genealogy. The first on her mother's family named AS I FIND IT, a sketch of the Butler family; another in two volumes called TEN THOUSAND PLUNKETTS, and this book which is a sketch of the Hollingsworth family, that of her maternal grandmother.

Was presented the Golden Award in 1967, by the Athens Business and Professional Woman's Club, for "continued and enduring Service to her fellow man." Her hobbies are orchid and dahlia growing.

She and her husband celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary in December 1971 with a reception given by their children, when scores of relatives and friends attended.

Possibly the most important thing that happened during Mrs. Ivy's life was open heart surgery at Emory University in 1967. This surgery made great changes in her life. It slowed her down but she still lives a pretty normal life and enjoys it to its utmost, one day at a time. It truly was a good lesson in patience.

THE FAMILY TREE

I think that I shall never see
The finish of a family tree
As it forever seems to grow
From roots that started long ago
'Way back in ancient history times
In foreign lands and distant climes;
From them grew trunk and branching limbs that dated back to times so dim.
One seldom knows exactly when
The parents met and married then,
or when the twigs began to grow
With odd-named children row on row.
'Though verse like this is made by me,
The end's in sight as you can see,

CHAPTER I

BACKGROUND OF THE EARLY FAMILIES

WHO CAME TO GEORGIA

LIBERTY SPRINGS PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH CROSS HILL, S.C.

THE NAME:

Liberty Spring as a name and locality ante-dates the church by a decade. "It takes its name," says Dr. Howe in reference to the church, "from the fact that an American officer during the Revolutionary War was encamped at the spring near which the church stands and which became the meeting place for the sons of Liberty in those days." The Presbyterian Church and the school associated with it came into being after the disturbances of the Revolution had died away. The congregation assumed the local name and identification that had already become familiar.

Another but less plausible traditions comes to us through Rev. Z.L. Holmes, "Some British soldiers on their way to Old Cambridge encamped in the vicinity of this church. The small-pox broke out among them. The encampment was continued for some time. Water was obtained from a neighboring spring and the soldiers called it Liberty Spring. Hence the name of this church." This statement overlooks the fact that the Church was not in existence till nearly ten years later and that the land for the church grounds was not secured till many years after the British had departed.

THE BEGINNING:

The Protestant Irish began to settle in South Carolina in considerable numbers as early as 1732. Their immigration increased after 1763 and continued till after the American Revolution. These were in general the same people frequently denominated Scotch-Irish, but those who settled in the vicinity of what is now Cross Hill seem to have been especially conscious of their Irish origin. The somewhat unfavorable impression of these early people of Liberty Spring congregation was suggested to Dr. Howe the Presbyterian historian by an informant who lived and wrote some sixty years after the formation of the church. They were probably not more nor less Irish than the Scotch-Irish around them, nor did they suffer the privations or humiliations of poverty more than their fellow settlers who came at an earlier time. The more recent arrivals from Erin seemed a poor sort to their neighbors who had grown relatively prosperous in their ten to thirty years residence in the new country. Perhaps too, the old Pastor who gathered the group of worshippers and formed them into some semblance of ecclesiastical order was not more forbidding in manner than many who like him had suffered the disfigurement of small-pox that set its ugly signature on the faces of so many people.

The Liberty Spring community may have had visits from Rev. James Creswell, an able, active Presbyterian minister, who preached at points on both sides of the Saluda River until his death in 1776. The section was sharply divided, sometimes in bloody conflict, over the American Revolution. No agreement in Church or State was possible. William Cunningham and Patrick Cunningham who lived ten miles to the north were ardently loyal to the British cause. William Cunningham died in Bermuda as a pensioned officer of the British Army. Patrick Cunningham, his brother, returned to South Carolina after the Revolution and built "Rosemont". Patrick's son, Robert Cunningham, was an Elder at Liberty Spring. "Bloody Bill" Cunningham, a notorious character of the Revolution, a distant cousin of William and Patrick, perpetrated the infamous massacre of Hayes Station within five miles of Liberty Spring. Ten miles to the southward fiery followers of the American cause, Col. James Williams, and others like him, gave themselves sacrificially to the costly fight for independence. Members of the Williams family were communicants of the Church at a later time. Children of Whig and Tory, American patriot and British loyalist, were lifting their voices in common worship within a generation after the strife and bitterness of the Revolution had passed. No religious services or minister of ecclesiastical organization could be secured till after peace settled on the land.

"Shortly after the Revolution, Mr. John McCosh, a friend of Robert McClintock and of a Rev. Mr. Brown who settled in (what was afterwards called) Newberry District and shortly after the death of Mr. McCosh returned to Ireland, had formed a small society which did not long survive." This sentence by Dr. Howe is obscure but almost certainly means that the Rev. Mr. Brown referred to, gathered a group of worshippers soon after the Revolution. We, know, however, that Rev. John McCosh succeeded in establishing the church and we may feel fairly assured that the date is 1787. The time is determined by reasonable inference from the statements occurring in papers left by Robert McClintock who came to America from Ireland in 1772 but returned to Ireland in 1775. He came back to America in 1783. As early as 1784 McClintock was preaching to groups of Presbyterians in what is now Fairfield, Newberry and Laurens Counties. Soon after his settlement in what was afterwards called Laurens County, McClintock organized a church at the foot of Little River Mountain about one mile south of Milton. The correspondence of McClintock, the frequent interchange of ministerial courtesies between the two men, the fact that both were affiliated with the old Presbytery at Charleston lead us to believe that McCosh probably began his ministry at Liberty Spring about the same time that McClintock organized Rocky Spring, 1787. The two held the first sacramental service at Fairview Church about the time of its organization, 1787. That both were considered unsound in doctrine may be taken with a grain of salt as there had been much theological controversy in the Presbyterian Church during the period of its formation. McCosh and McClintock were closely associated as long as McCosh lived. Tradition says that McCosh preached at Rocky Spring as early as 1780. Due to the disturbances of the times and to the close and constant interchange of friendly relations between the two ministers, we are inclined to think that McCosh was not in the community earlier than 1784, the time of McClintock's settlement at Rocky Spring. This surmise is strengthened by the phrase, "Shortly after the Revolution" emphasized in the first historical reference to the Church, McCosh probably came into the community along with McClintock in 1784 and began to teach for his livelihood in 1792. At some time during those eight years Liberty Spring Church was planted. As it would take some time to begin the process of organization, we move forward to the date beyond 1784. As a second house of worship was erected in McCosh's time and as the first building was in use for more than two years, we may be sure that the date is not later than the third year before McCosh began to teach in 1792, that it is not later than 1787 and not earlier as we have argued above than 1785. We are thus narrowed down to the four years between 1785 and 1789. The tradition has persisted from early days in naming 1787 as the Church's natal day. We may accept this date as indirectly confirmed by such written statements as survive. This evidence came to us through Howe's history based upon statements of Dr. Robert Campbell, and Elder in Liberty Spring, and upon records from the pen of Robert McClintock himself the companion of McCosh.

We may resume the narrative of Dr. Howe after he seems to indicate, as we have said, that a society that did not long survive was attempted by the Rev. Mr. Brown from Newberry. "Another attempt was made." The neighborhood erected a small log building about a half mile from the present Church at which a religious society was organized under Mr. McCosh as their minister, and Matthew Henter and Thomas Cosson as Elders. About two years afterwards a house of worship was erected on the present site. The population were chiefly immigrants from Ireland, and poor, and their minister resorted to teaching for his living, as many Presbyterian pastors long after this time. All the historians of South Carolina repeatedly indicate the strength and weakness of the Presbyterian ministers in resorting to teaching as a means of living. This kept them out of the wide active and energetic evangelization of the people, till after the Methodist and Baptist had made vast in-gatherings among the growing population. This graduate of the University of Glasgow, however, was like many another Presbyterian divine who kept the light of learning burning when there were few beside to light the flame.

After McCosh's death in 1795 the house of worship went to ruin, the old Elders died and the Church became disorganized. This was for a brief while only, for, in 1796 those who were concerned for religion petitioned the Presbytery of South Carolina to be taken under its care and asked for ministerial supply.

It is necessary at this point to explain that many Churches in the pioneer period of the State had at first no Presbyterian connections and were fully organized and continued for a longer or shorter period without affiliation with any Presbytery. The earliest preachers came from the Presbyteries in Scotland and Ireland. A few may have come from England. Those that came from Scotland and Ireland brought their ecclesiastical differences and theological controversies with them. Covenanters, Reformed, Associate, Burghers, and Anti-Burghers,--the people as well as the pastors--perpetuated their old world theological acrimony in the American wilderness. There does appear, however, and such disagreement in connection with the Liberty Spring people. There were differences also between Irish and Scotch Presbyterians that were not always subdued by the harsh exactions of pioneer life. There was no nearby Presbytery until 1784 when the Presbytery of South Carolina was cut off from the Presbytery of Orange. The provincial Presbytery with Charleston as its center, existed from 1724 till the American Revolution. It was known as the Presbytery of South Carolina, or the Presbytery of Charleston, both names. . . . When the first pastor of Liberty Spring died, the General Assembly had been in existence six years and the Presbytery of South Carolina had been meeting for ten years. . . Rev. J.B. Kennedy, a young minister, had been ordained six months when, in October 1796, he was sent to supply Liberty Spring by the Presbytery of South Carolina. . . ."

"Rev. G.M. Hollingsworth served this church from 1908 to 1911. He gave three-fourths of his time. Salary was $700.00 per year."

There were two houses of worship before 1800, both log structures. The third house was erected shortly after the securing of a deed in 1800 for church property and a school. Joseph Hollingsworth (Sr.) (son of Abraham) was one of several who gave $20.00 for this land. It is on record at the Laurens County Court House and is dated Nov. 15, 1800. The third house was erected shortly after this deed was executed. Some of these early temple builders set aside a special crop or gave work and materials. One sold a horse. It was in this fashion that the house was set up and stood for more than three-quarters of a century. The old stone church known for nearly half a century as the "Old Church" was used as a place of worship for the Negroes and as a "Session House" until it was disposed of. (Taken from the church's history by Dudley Jones. Presented at the 150th anniversary of the founding of the church)

The names of only Joseph Hollingsworth is recorded in the earliest part of this history, but it is known that many others in this same family were members. From the History of Smyrna Presbyterian Church, Rockdale County, Ga. (then Newton) we have this information: "It was in 1824 that Moses (son of Joseph Sr.) and Elizabeth Rodgers Hollingsworth and their infant son Newton, came. The next year there followed them Joseph Hollingsworth, Jr., and his wife Elizabeth Ann Carr Rodgers, whom he had married in 1815. With them their children, James (b. 1817) Julia Ann (b. 1819); Letitia (b. 1820); Levi (b. 1822) and Rosannah (b. 1825). Joseph Jr., and Elizabeth were charter members and Joseph was one of the first Elders. Mr. and Mrs. Moses Hollingsworth were Charter Members, also. Coming later (attended this first service) were Ruth Rodgers and her brother George, Aaron Hollingsworth, brother of Joseph (Jr.) and Moses, whom Ruth later married. Joseph became a Charter Elder. All of these Hollingsworth presented certificates from the Liberty Hill Presbyterian Church of Laurens County, S.C."

The names of many Hollingsworths appear on later rolls of the church; but of a later generation than the Joseph Hollingsworth, Sr., in our line.

Many Hollingsworths are buried in the large country cemetery at the rear of the present modern, brick building with Educational facilities. On her hurried trip through this cemetery in January 1969, the author failed to locate the grave of Abraham or George Hollingsworth, father and grandfather of Joseph, Sr.

The author has before her a thirty-four page history of the Liberty Spring Church 1787-1937. This booklet, with a vast amount of material is on file at the Historical Foundation at Montreat, N.C. Those who are interested in a further study of this historic old church are referred to those records.

Rev. W.F. Mitchell, pastor in 1969, graciously sent the booklet to the author. He is the present pastor of this church, and serves too as Executive Secretary of the Presbytery of South Carolina.

Historical Sketch of Smyrna Presbyterian Church

(See pictures, page 148)

Written by Rev. Elton Wilson, for the Centennial Anniversary of the church, July 3rd, 1927.

Let us note some of the conditions of the country one-hundred years ago when the hardy pioneers first organized this church. The Georgia rail-road had not been built. Conyers had no existence as a town. Atlanta had not been placed on the map. Decatur was a mere village. The entire territory now included in the Atlanta and Macon Presbyteries was embraced within the Flint River Presbytery. The organized Presbyterian churches were few in number, and only to be found in the towns with a few widely scattered country congregations.

There were no railroads, no telegraphs, no telephones, no stoves, no sewing machines, no automobiles, no radio and none of the modern conditions of life. There was no kerosene lamps and the tallow candle took the place of our present day system of electric lights. The Indians were still to be found in the country. Cotton was not king then because each family only planted from one to three acres. There were no public schools, only a few academies and colleges. The primary schools were supported by private subscription and the curriculum consisted of the study of Webster's Blue Back Speller, arithmetic and grammar.

The people lived largely at home, spun their own thread and wove it into cloth to make their own clothing. They lived plainly, were simple in manners, hardy in spirit, with great reverence for God and held to a simple faith in the Bible as the word of God. The war of 1812 with England had only closed less than a dozen years before. The Revival of 1800 in Tennessee and Kentucky, with the inauguration of the camp-meeting movement had left a profound impression upon the religious life of the whole country.

The people worshipped in log school-houses or else in plain frame church buildings. Hymn books were scarce and there were no organs, or pianos, so the ministers lined two stanzas at a time and then the congregation sang them.

It is related that on one occasion a minister in lining his hymn, observed a loose horse with a side-saddle on passing the door, so his stanza as given out read thus-

"Jesus my all, to heaven has gone, Brethren there goes a horse with a side saddle on."

So the congregation sang it that way, thinking that it was a part of the hymn.

Into these pioneer conditions came the Rev. John S. Wilson, and organized the Smyrna Presbyterian church, Feb. 11th, 1827, with fifteen members. With Joseph Hollingsworth and Archibald Gilmore, as the first ruling elders.

The church has been served by 26 ruling elders, of this number 10, bore the name of Hollingsworth, they were the direct descendants of the first ruling elder. Presbyterianism in this part of the country owes much to the loyal descendants of this first elder. When the Presbyterian Church of Conyers was organized in 1860, out of the 26 charter members, 10 of them bore the name of Hollingsworth. The following is a list of the ruling elders:

Joseph Hollingsworth, 1827.
Archibald Gilmore, 1827.
William Hollingsworth, 1849.
Henry Taylor, 1849.
Moses Hollingsworth, 1849.
John P. Marbut, 1849.
Aaron Hollingsworth, 1849.

John W. McCollum, 1855.
 Newton Hollingsworth, 1859.
 J. G. McNair, 1866.
 John W. Hollingsworth, 1868.
 George Lyons, 1870.
 George W. Hollingsworth, 1870.
 Joseph A. Hollingsworth, 1877.
 W. B. Wolcott, 1877.
 John Bohannon, 1882.
 James H. Hollingsworth, 1882.
 Robert Hollingsworth, 1884.
 D. Y. Clodfelter, 1889.
 J. G. A. McCollum, 1889.
 Col. W. L. Peek, 1899.
 S. Flether Bohannon, 1903.
 Pleasant A. Sims, 1903.
 G. M. Hollingsworth, 1903.
 H. F. Sims,
 J. C. Plunkett,
 J. A. Young,

The following is a list of ministers who have served this church:

John S. Wilson,
 James Gamble,
 Michael Dixon,
 Samuel T. Pharr,
 William Q. Keith, 1846.
 J. B. Stevens, 1847-49.
 J. McKettrick, 1854-57.
 J. L. Rogers, 1857-59.
 H. C. Carter, 1859.
 J. M. McKettrick, 1859-62.
 Dr. Henry Quigg, 1862-1904.
 J. W. Stokes, 1904.
 Geo. A. Beattie, 1905.
 R. F. Otts, 1906-07.
 Lloyd B. Fields, 1909-11.
 John D. Keith, 1912-13.
 William Duncan, 1916-20.
 J. T. Young, 1922-25.

Out of the 18 ministers who have served this church, Dr. Henry Quigg, is conspicuous for length of service, having served almost half of the total time of pastoral service. He served this church for 42 years. He played such a large part in the history of this church, and in the establishment of Presbyterianism in this part of the country, that we here-with append a brief sketch of his life.

Dr. Henry Quigg was born in the North of Ireland, Feb. 25th, 1826. In his young manhood he came to Quebec, Canada, where for two years he was principal of St. Andrews Institute.

He then came South, and graduated from Erskine College in 1853. In the same year he was received under the care of the Second Presbytery of the Associate Reformed Church at Due West, S. C. He was licensed by the same Presbytery in 1854.

He served the Hopewell church for 13 years, Bathany church for 4 years, Smyrna church 42 years and the Conyers church for 20 years. Here we have an example of a country minister who was preeminently successful. He was a writer of some ability. Cosmopolitan in his outlook upon the world, having traveled extensively in Europe, Asia, Africa, Canada and the United States.

He was also a successful farmer. He was a man of deep spirituality, endowed with a fine spirit of Irish wit and humor, which as a saving grade added richness to his character. The strength, charm and beauty of a lovable personality still abides. He lives in the outstanding work which he achieved in his age and generation.

The first church building erected by the Smyrna church was built of logs about three miles from the present location. The second building was a frame structure, now used as a school house. The third, and present building was erected in 1902.

A few years after the organization of the church, the first camp-meeting was held under a brush arbor. Later a frame structure was built to shelter the camp meeting. The last building erected was the present auditorium.

It is important for us to note the high-lights in the past history of this church. One of the outstanding facts is the simple, fervent spirit of evangelical zeal. It has been a fruitful church. Somewhere between 1500, and 2000 persons have been converted and received into the church. They knew but little of our modern substitutes for the Gospel, but they knew human nature, the Bible, yet they preached a fruitful gospel of power, with enthusiasm and intensity.

They had the real Puritanic zeal for maintaining the purity of the church. Their stern sense of righteousness gave to the enforcement of discipline a prominence, that it does not hold in the life of the modern church. Our age has more of the spirit of softness and less of the rugged force of strength.

During the regime of slavery, the church had enough of the humane spirit of Christ to manifest an interest in the spiritual welfare of their slaves. The records show that a number of negroes were baptized and received as members of this church.

Another outstanding fact is revealed in the emphasis which the fathers placed upon maintaining, family worship, a high standard of personal piety, and the zealous training of the children and young people, in the doctrines of the church, and creating a familiarity with the Scriptures.

Four ministers of the Gospel have been trained and sent out from this church. Viz. W.F. Hollingsworth, Robert H. Hollingsworth, Thomas Butler and J.A. Clodfelter.

During the past history the church has never had preaching more than twice a month, and during the greater portion of the time only one service a month. It has never been a wealthy church, for the record shows that no minister has ever been paid more than $500 per year. You of today have entered into the heritage of doctrine, tradition and labors of the fathers. Will you keep the faith, and carry on the work to more glorious achievements?

THE HOLLINGSWORTH FAMILY

A Brief History of the Smyrna (Rockdale Co.) Presbyterian Church in its Relation to the Hollingsworth Family, by Rev. W.F. Hollingsworth.

Much of the following material is gathered from three articles, now yellowed from age, published by Rev. Henry Quigg, D.D., in Solid South, Conyers, Ga., in 1885.

It is recalled that Valentine Hollingsworth, Sr., and his family, just from the North of Ireland, settled near the present city of Wilmington, Del., in the year 1682. The family stock was very prolific and soon spread into near-by parts of Pennsylvania, Maryland, and Virginia. Braddock's defeat in 1755 made life insecure from depredations of the Indians and the family established several colonies in North and South Carolina. Gradually the Indians of the Carolinas and Georgia were driven across the Chattahoochee, and later across the Mississippi. The government surveyed these lands and opened them to white settlers at a nominal cost.

In the years about 1824 South Carolina was in a political upheaval because of the protective tariff enacted by the federal government. Civil war was threatening, and some of our forbears, still adhering to their Quaker faith, which disallowed war, began to leave the state. Joseph Hollingsworth, Jr., son of Joseph and Rosanna Nichols Hollingsworth, came to Georgia from Laurens Dist., S.C., in 1825 and settled in DeKalb County, later moving to Newton (now Rockdale) County. In '24 and '25 his brother Moses came from the same section and settled in the Smyrna community, others following later.

These early pioneers brought their religion with them and began at once to express it in action. A petition was presented to Presbytery for the organization of a Presbyterian church. In answer to this petition the Smyrna Presbyterian church was organized on Sabbath morning, February 11th, 1827, with fifteen charter members. This epochal event took place in the home of Samuel and Alexander Stewart, near the site where elder J.G. McNair later lived, and not far from the present site of the church. Rev. J.T. Wilson, then a young man, preached the sermon, and Rev. William Kirkpatrick of Ireland, who had served some of these same people as pastor of the Liberty Spring church in South Carolina, assisted in the organization. The charter members were Archibald and Margaret Gilmer, James and Mary Russell, Mary Gilmer, Samuel and Alexander Stewart, Moses and Elizabeth Hollingsworth, David M. and Nancy Stewart, Elizabeth and Joseph Hollingsworth, Jr., Elizabeth Callahan, and Elizabeth Gillespie. There were four Stewarts, four Hollingsworths, and four of the eight women were named Elizabeth.

Ruth Rogers and her brother, George, just from South Carolina, and Aaron Hollingsworth, whom Ruth later married, were present at the organization but did not join until later. The first elders of the infant church were Archibald Gilmer and Joseph Hollingsworth, Jr. "The latter was the father of Mrs. John L. Stewart of Conyers, whose praise is on every tongue." Credit is given to these two elders for their energy and enterprise in erecting a house of worship in the first year of the life of the church. It was a log house 20 x 30 feet, and was in DeKalb County, about three miles north of the present church and camp ground. This log house continued in use until 1840, and Rev. James Gamble was its first pastor, serving for six years.

In 1830 Joseph Hollingsworth, Sr., and his wife Rosannah, were received by certificate from the Liberty Spring (S.C.) church, Laurens District. Joseph, Sr., was at once elected to serve as elder, having been an elder in the church from which he came. Ten years after its organization the church has had sixty-seven members. In 1837 William Hollingsworth, and his brother-in-law, William Taylor, who had been elders in South Carolina, and who had been living in the community some eighteen months, were installed as elders in the Smyrna church. In 1844 Moses Hollingsworth was made an elder, and in 1850 the bench of elders consisted of William, Aaron, and Moses Hollingsworth, Henry Taylor, and John P. Marbut. Six years later Newton Hollingsworth was made an elder and served until 1860, when he went as elder to the newly organized daughter church at Conyers. He served the Conyers church for twenty-five years as elder, and during a large part of that time was superintendent of the Sunday School:—"few better of purer men ever lived." John Hollingsworth was ordained and installed as elder in 1868, and was soon after made clerk of session in place of his father, William. George W. Hollingsworth was added as an elder in 1869, and James H. Hollingsworth in 1877.

From its organization, 1827, to 1885, the church had nineteen elders nine of whom were Hollingsworths, and several others had Hollingsworth wives. In fact there was hardly a time during all those years when the Hollingsworth name was not a majority on the bench of elders, and also clerk of the session. "The Nestor of the bench, William, (known to all as "Uncle Billie"), died March 28th, 1883, having served the church for about fifty years with conspicuous fidelity, zeal, and love. He was one of the most blameless, amiable and pious men that ever trod the earth." I remember being at Smyrna some forty years ago and was in the Bible class at Sunday school. There were some thirty-five in the class, and during roll call twenty-seven of them answered to the name of Hollingsworth.

The record from which I have gathered the foregoing facts does not state how many of our name served the church as deacons, Sunday school teachers, and other leaders. But I am sure an equally large proportion served in these capacities. But the eldership particularly stands for spiritual leadership, and men of the highest type.

The Smyrna that is familiar to those of my age, with its church, school house, and camp ground, began in 1840. The first church was sold to the Methodists and was known for some years as old Smyrna, and this as new Smyrna. The church which stands today was dedicated in 1902.

In 1844 Joseph Hollingsworth, Sr., died--"an old man (79) full of years and ripe for heaven, leaving behind him a name fragrant with the incense of piety, and a large posterity following in his steps who today rise up and call him blessed." His wife, Hosannah, died in 1839. These two are the oldest of our sainted dead who sleep in Smyrna's church yard, and the oldest who sleep in Georgia soil, so far as I know.

One of the unique things about the Smyrna church is its inseparable connection with camp meetings. From the best information available it seems they began soon after the church was organized. Dr. Quigg says "a camp meeting was held here in 1846 by appointment of Presbytery." I am reliably informed this was a meeting of Presbytery. Other sources vouch for meetings in '44 and '45. It is said a double wedding occurred at the October meeting of 1845. James Milton Hollingsworth was married to a cousin, Martha Hollingsworth, and Charlotte Hollingsworth was married to Jeff Abney. These camp meetings have continued to the present time with a brief lapse during the Civil War. The large and substantial open arbor, covered first with boards, and later with shingles, was built in 1873. Before this the people worshipped under a brush covered arbor. The first "tent" of a permanent nature was erected by Aaron Hollingsworth.

It is the general impression that camp meetings are a Methodist institution. As a matter of fact they originated with the Presbyterian church. In the early days churches were far apart, and people had to go long distances for public worship. On communion occasions, especially, preparatory services were held, with a visiting minister assisting. The people would go in their covered wagons and camp, carrying provisions for several days. Later a brush covered arbor was erected, and cabins of a temporary nature were built. As far back as the writer can remember there stands the hollow square, substantial tents with straw-covered dirt floors on the north and west sides, the graveyard on the south side, the church and school house some distance apart on the east side, next to the public road, and the big arbor in the center of the square. Here the "tribes of Israel" would gather annually for a week of intensified prayer, praise, and preaching. It was a great spiritual feast, as well as a great time of social fellowship and reunion. There was no hotel or boarding house, yet no visitor or stranger ever failed to find a ready welcome to bed and board. The social life was like to that of one big family with a kind of holy atmosphere everywhere present. They were times of spiritual revival and refreshing from on high. Other Presbyterian camp grounds have become extinct, and the character of Smyrna is greatly changed. True, camp meeting is still held at the close of Presbytery's conferences for young people, and the grounds and tents have witnessed the introduction of modern conveniences, but to us older ones Smyrna can never be the same again.

I cannot close these remarks without a loving tribute to the man of God who was the spiritual father of so many of our family and connections. As I recall him he was one of God's noblemen, the finest type of Irish Presbyterianism, a gentleman of the old school, a preacher unexcelled, with a discriminating literary taste, and of exquisite culture. Other ministers served the church well for varying periods, but he literally reared more than a generation of Hollingsworths, and loved them as his own children. I need hardly say that I refer to that peerless Christian gentleman, Rev. Henry Quigg, D.D., pastor of Smyrna church for forty years (1863-1903).

I can never forget my grandfather's funeral, which I attended as a boy in 1883. The church was crowded beyond its capacity, and my spirit was strangely stirred at the singing of one of his favorite hymns: "I Would Not Live Always, I Ask Not to Stay," etc. Dr. Quigg's text was, "A prince and a great man is fallen this day in Israel." In the midst of his funeral address, with the whole audience in tears and sobbing, he paused, his voice broke, his eyes suffused with tears, as he said, "It seems I can do no more than mingle my tears with yours."

Truly he was also a Prince and a Great Man of Israel.

Second Annual Reunion of Hollingsworth Family

The second annual reunion of the Hollingsworth family was held Sunday, September 2, 1934, at Smyrna. Rev. W.F. Hollingsworth, conducted the morning worship, reading from Luke's gospel and took as his theme, "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches." He stressed the importance of early home-training as the greatest need of the present age and warned the present generation that if they would have their offspring enriched in noble Christian character, we must see to it that the word of God is made a part of the daily training of our children and reverence for God's house and the Holy Sabbath.

The service was begun by singing "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow," followed by the invocation, after which "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name" was heartily sung by the congregation that filled old Smyrna. Mr. Bohanar's cornet added much to the musical program. After the inspiring message of Rev. Hollingsworth, the following resolution was passed:

1. That what we have and are, is a dispensation of God's loving Providence and we owe a debt of gratitude to God for God-loving and fearing fore-parents and re-dedication of those present to God's service.

2. That what the world needs, is not more material prosperity, but a more stable Spiritual foundation, not more national development, but more Spiritual development, not more intellectual power, but more Spiritual power, not more knowledge, but more character; not more law but more religion.

3. That we ponder the simple faith of our ancestors and fear God's Commands for Christians to love, go pray, save, following in Christ's footsteps, strengthening the weak, encouraging the sad, lifting up the fallen, seeking the lost.

4. That all the business, social, religious and economical disturbances in the world today can only be made right by our enthroning of Christ in our lives and making evangelism and the business of God's Kingdom the chief aim of our national life and activities.

Business Session

A complete history of the house of Hollingsworth was ably presented by Mrs. Viola Hollingsworth Brown, of Augusta, Ga., beginning about 1,000 years ago in Chester England, on to the coming of two brothers to Newton County from Laurens Courthouse, South Carolina in 1824; one to DeKalb County, a year later. The large number of Hollingsworth's are their direct descendants of Joseph and Moses Hollingsworth.

The following officers were elected: Judge J.B. Hollingsworth, of Fayetteville, Ga., son of Robert H. Hollingsworth, president; C.J. Hollingsworth, son of William R. Hollingsworth, vice-president; Luther Hollingsworth, of Atlanta, Ga., secretary-treasurer; Rev. W. F. Hollingsworth, Atlanta; Mrs. Viola H. Brown, Augusta; Mrs. Anita Armstrong, Atlanta, historical committee.

Smyrna Camp Ground was selected as the permanent meeting place, and the first Sunday after camp meeting is to be the date of the next reunion.

C.J. Hollingsworth,
Retiring Secretary.

CHAPTER II

THE ROGERS OR RODGERS FAMILY

The author is including this history of the Rogers family, because Ruth Rogers was the wife of Aaron Hollingsworth who inspired the research results which are found in this book.

The Rogers family has intermarried into the families of Butlers, Plunkets and Hollingsworths. The article that follows was found in the Department of Archives and History located on Capital Avenue in Atlanta, Ga. Only a part of this information was copied. The author picked up the story when the first settlers arrived on the Mayflower. Several pages precede the arrival of Thomas Rogers in the colonies.

We know that the Rogers came to Georgia from Laurens, S.C. and settled in Newton County (now Rockdale). Both maternal and paternal great-grandmothers were Rogers and were sisters.

A Nancy Rogers is in the census of Newton County in the 1830s. She was the author's maternal great-great-grandmother. It is reasonable to believe she was the mother of Ruth Rogers who married Aaron Hollingsworth. Evidently Nancy's husband had died earlier and Nancy was living in the home of her daughter Ruth when the census was taken. She was the mother also of Nancy Riddle Rogers who married Robert Plunket, a great-grandfather of the author.

"The Pilgrim, Thomas Rogers, who came to New England & landed on Plymouth Rock, Mass., was grandson of Bernard Rogers, the 5th child & 4th son of the Martyr; and his youngest son was James Rogers. There were two James Rogers in New England covering much of the same early period, & the desc. of both allege descent from John Rogers the Martyr. Both claims are probably true. The James Rogers of Newport, R.I., Crane claim, was the James who sailed over to Mass. in the "Increase" & son of the Pilgrim Thos. Rogers of "Mayflower" passage & consequently a desc. of the Martyr; yet the James Rogers of New Eng., Ct., brought over with him the heraldic coat-of-arms, that evidently proved him to have been of the same Eng. Rogers family - which taken with his statement that he was a gt.gt.gr. son the martyr; bolstered as it was by the written statements of Deason Juthro Bebee & the Rogers Deseds. of that branch of the family, is convincing evidence that said emigrant's allegation was true. Others assert they were one & the same man (q.v.); but consider each: These claims of both lines are backed by New Eng. genealogists, & all state there was evident relationship between the said two James', from early English ancestors, & there can be no doubt as to each having descended from the Martyr. From the James Rogers, of New London, Ct., spring a numerous progeny scattered over portions of the American continent, from ocean to ocean; & among them is Alton Rogers, a lawyer of Portland, Oregon, on the Pacific Coast, who has direct trace of his lineage from James Rogers of New London. And the pertinent part of the foregoing research practically corroborates the discoveries made by Hon. Warner L. Underwood, relative to early Rogers family of Eng. & Scotland.

THE MARTYR'S VIRGINIA DESCENDANTS

1609- ab. 1680

Thos. Matthew Rogers' Yngst. son - GEN. 9:

John Rogers, b. ab. 1609-10 in North England or Scotland; m. ab. 1640-1, Lucy Iverson of Scotland, & they settled in Edinburgh, had and reared a large family of 12 or 15 children.

See print of his esoutcheon on opposite plate; the interp. of the motto being, "Act' justly & fear not." He finally in 1680, immigrated to America in his own ship, bringing with him his wife, 3 children, artisans, servants, laborers, & material for constructing buildings, etc. He settled in King & Queen County, near the present town of Dunkirk.

ISSUE OF GILES & RACHAEL (EASTHAM) ROGERS. GEN. 11

1 - Giles (2) Rogers, b. 1673-4 in Egn.; who at maturity took up land in Hanover County, but afterwards went to Halifax County on the border of N.C.; and later crossed the line & settled nr. Albermarle Sound of that state, where he m. & left issue.

2 - Lucy Rogers, b. 1675 in Eng.; m. twice, 1st ab. 1700 in Virginia, Wm. Wilson - a Quaker, 2nd, a Richards; & her dau. Elizabeth (called 'Nancy') Wilson, b. 1701, m. ab. 1723-5, Jonathan Clark, b. 1698, & they finally settled in Albermarle Co., Va., had & left issue - of which the full record is known. She was the patriarchal ancestrees of the Va., Ky., & Mo., Clarks of the Rogers family. Lucy Rogers had children by both husbands.

3 - Peter Rogers, b. ab. 1677, in Eng.; who upon maturity took up land in King & Queen and Spottsylvania Cos., Va., but finally sold out to his bro. John, moved to N.C.; where he m. & left issue. Among his children were Col. Peter Rogers of Rev. fame, & Capt John Rogers, who m. near Fredericksburg, Va.; and there are desc. in Tenn., Ill. & Nebr.

4 - John Rogers, b. 1680, on shipboard at sea, or after the vessel came to anchor in the Chesapeake Bay. He obtained a fairly good education, and at manhood became an explorer & land surveyor, & took up much land in the "Tide-water" section of Virginia. He m. 1716, Mary Byrd, b. 1683, youngest dau. of Col. Wm. Byrd (the elder) by Mary Horsmander, his wife, of "Westover" Virginia; and they had & reared 9 children, of whom there is complete record. She d. 1763-4, in her 81st yr.; and he, ab. 1768, nearly 88 yrs. old. & both were buried at Old "Park Church", K. & Q. Co. Va.

5 - Rachael Rogers, b. ab. 1683 in Va.; m. ab. 1710 Wm. Lathan, from which alliance descd. the Moreheads' of North Carolina and Ky. & the wealthy banker, Jno. C. Latham, of New York City, now deceased. Their ultimate location is not exactly known, but supposed to have been in the locality of the other emigrants of the Rogers family from Va., to the "Old North State."

6 - Mary Ann Rogers, b. ab. 1687-8 in Va.; m. Roe Samuels (or Samuel Roe), & from their issue desc. the Courts family of Southern Ky & others in the West.

CHILDREN OF JOHN & MARY (BYRD) ROGERS - GEN. 12
All born in King & Queen County, Virginia.

1717 -

1 - John Rogers, b. 1717, who finally went to N.C. & settled in Bertio Precinct nr. Albermarle Sound (which precinct is now a County); there m. became a man of substance, & left issue - with many descds. throughout the southern states.

1719-1794

2 - Giles (3) Rogers, b. 1719; m. 1757, Sarah Ann Iverson Lewis, b. 1737. He removed to & settled nr. the waters of "Buck Mountain" Creek in Albermarle Co., Va., prior to 1765; and they had & reared 7 children, & he d. 1794 & she 1816. There is a full record of the descendants.

3 - George Rogers, b. 1721/6/11; m. 1754/12/16, Frances Pollard, b. 1730/3/10. They settled on land taken up by his father in 1712 crossing the line between K. & Q. & Spottsylvania Cos., now Caroline County, Va., which he called "Mount Air." They had & reared 9 children. She died 1798/3/30 & he 1802/3/13. There is an extensive record of this (the author's) family.

4 - Mary Rogers, b. ab. 1725 (The correct date as given by Bible record in Johnstone's Bible a copy in possession of Mrs. H.A. Godly gives her birth as Jan. 2/1727; m. Larkin Johnston, May 2, 1745. She d. Oct. 25, 1800 in Granville Co. N.C. and is buried by her bro. John at his old place in Hico. Larkin Johnston was b. in Spottsylvania Co. Va., Jan. 2, 1727, & died Oct. 25, 1800, md. Larkin Johnston of Spottsylvania Co. Va. He was a vestry man of St. George's parish of that Co. as early as 1728 (it surely means his father Lord Wm. Johnston who md. Ann Chew) They ultimately moved to Granville Co. N.C. in 1748 as proven by the muster rolls which show, that he served in the Granville Co. Regiment commanded by Col. Robt. Harris, which protected the town of Hillsboro against attack from the "Regulators" in Sept. 1768 (see payroll dated 1769/3/24. They had issue, whose descendants resided in southern and western states (page 35.)

5 - Ann Rogers, b. 1728-9/10/21; m. 1749, her cousin John Clark, b. 1728/10/20. They ultimately settled in Albermarle Co. Va., and they had and reared a family of 10 children, finally removed to Ky. in 1796 & resided at "Mulberry Hill" near Louisville, where she d. 1793/12/24 & he 1799/7/30. There is full record of their descendants who principally resided in Va., Ky., & Mo.

6 - Lucy Rogers, b. 1731; m. 1755, Samuel Redd, b. ab. 1729, of "Cedar Vale" Carolina County, Va., who as alleged ultimately became a Capt. of the Rev. Army. Am. War for Independence. They had issue of 7 children - their old. child Fanny, was b. 1756; & the yngst. Samuel, b. 1764/3/19, who m. Mar. 1797, Elizabeth Taylor, had issue & d. 1841/9/4. Descendants chiefly reside in Caroline & Hanover Cts. Va., tho' a few west west; & there is full record of this line. Capt. Samuel & Lucy (Rogers) Redd lived & were bur. at their homestead "Cedar Vale"; she with puerperal fever after birth of her youngest child in 1764, and he ab. 1783, possibly later.

7 - Mildred Rogers, b. 1733; m. 1759-60, Reuben George, b. 1725-30, eld. son of John & Mary or Millicent (Jordan) George. He 1st. resided in St. Margaret's parish, Caroline Co., Va. & they had 7 children, of whom there is Court record, the eld. b. 1760/10/18 & the youngest b. 1778/1/15. He took the oath of allegiance to the state 1777/11/12, was a staunch citizen; she d. af. 1778/1/15, & he in 1803.

8 - Byrd Rogers, b. 1735; m. twice, the sisters Mary (1766) and Martha (1778) Trice, by whom he had issue of 9 children, who lived - 3 by his 1st wife, & 6 by his 2d wife. He and many of the family moved to Ky. where he d. in 1800; and descendants live in Ind. & in Ill. & there is full record of all of his family.

9 - Rachael Rogers, b. 1737/10/17; m. 1764/9/27, Donald Robertson of Drysdale, K. & Q. Co. Va. a learned Scotchman, educated at "Oxford University" who taught a boys school & was a great educator of Va. lads, many of whom afterward became distinguished men. They had issue of only 3 children - two of whom lived and of their descendants there is complete record. She d. 1792/11/7 at her home, Drysdale, Va.

DETERMINING BIRTH DATES

Doubt has been expressed as to which of the sisters, Mary or Lucy was eldest (?) In Edmond Rogers' record as 1st written, Lucy is reckoned the older, but the entry was afterward corrected & stands in his own handwriting as Mary, which in itself is sufficient; but the custom of the ancient Rogers family was ever to name their first born children after parents & gr. parents - thus: Giles' son Giles (2) was named after himself; & his son John was named after his father (John's gr. father) & ancestors generally. This John's wife was Mary Byrd, whose mother was Mary Horsmander, therefore the reason why their eldest dau. was named Mary is perfectly clear - after both Mother and Grand Mother (but it was not in the case of Mary Byrd, she being Wm. Byrd's I's youngest child, see will.)

Yet, still another reason why Mary was the oldest daughter; this is easily demonstrated by the dates of marriages of her sisters, etc. Mary was b. (May 2, 1727 M. Larkin Johnston, b. Jan. 2, 1727 of Spottsylvania Co. Va. in May 2, 1745 at "Westover" King & Queen County, Va. She died Oct. 25, 1800, was buried by her bro. John on Hico, N.C. (Persons Co.) Larkin d. Mar. 6, 1816. They were living in Granville Co. N.C. at this time.) J.M.G. note.

Her sister Ann was b. 1728-9 & m. John Clark, 1749, when she was ab-
21 yrs. old; their sister Lucy was b. 1731 & m. Samuel Redd 1755, when she was 24 yrs. of age; their sister Mildred was born 1733 & m. Reuben George 1759-60, when she was 26 yrs. old; and their sister Rachael was b. 1737 & m. Donald Robertson (much older than herself) 1764, when she was 27 yrs. of age.

This Roster of marriage shows that all the Rogers girls m. after full maturity, and in fact their mother was 33 yrs. old when she m. their father; and the Rogers family of Va., would never have consented to or allowed a dau. to marry in her middle teens.

DAVID WILLS HOLLINGSWORTH--son Rev. William Thomas Hollingsworth and Mary Frances Wills, b. May 20, 1874, d. May 24, 1965; m. Georgie Young, Charleston, W. Va., Jan. 3, 1912, b. May 2, 1874, d. Nov. 8, 1964 bur. Florence, Alabama Cemetery, May 22, 1965.

The following excerpt is taken from THE HISTORY OF THE FIRST PRES. CHURCH FLORENCE, ALA., by Mrs. Thurman L. Kelso:

"The esteemed pastor emeritus died on May 22, 1965, and was buried in Florence Cemetery beside his beloved "Miss Georgia." Surviving are a son, Wills Hollingsworth of New York City, a daughter Mrs. John Hatfield; four grandchildren, Mrs. Charles Baddley of Great Lakes, Ill., Mary Wills Hatfield, John Hatfield, and Kemper Hatfield, all of Florence; a great-grand daughter, Elizabeth Hollingsworth Baddley, and a great grand-son, Charles Edmond Baddley, Jr.

Among the many tributes and memorials inspired by Dr. Hollingsworth's life and ministry is the Gethsemane window above the church chancel. Shortly before his death the minister indicated that he especially appreciated the window because it was a memorial shared by his wife. In 1957 the window was dedicated by the congregation as "a loving tribute to Dr. and Mrs. Hollingsworth . . . for the life and spirit of these faithful servants of Christ."

NOTE: Other than the family of David Wills Hollingsworth, the expansion on the other children is far from complete. The author had difficulty in finding survivors in this family. Late in August 1975, with a deadline pushing hard, the author located Mrs. John Hatfield who is living in Florence, Ala. and is a daughter of David Wills Hollingsworth. A surviving sister, Mrs. Carrie Trimbell sent as much information as she could remember. It seems the family Bible has been lost and dates are not available. The information which follows was furnished by Mrs. Trimbell. One or two blanks were returned to the author and this information is used, too. Mrs. Trimbell has listed the children's names of William Thomas Hollingsworth in order of birth with slight expansion on these families from memory.

William Thomas Hollingsworth married Mary F. Wills. Other children of this couple were not as difficult to locate as the family of William Thomas. Most of them remained in Georgia and raised their families in the Atlanta vicinity.

DR. HOLLINGSWORTH RITES SCHEDULED

Dr. D.W. Hollingsworth, Pastor Emeritus of the First Presbyterian Church, Florence, died Saturday night at Eliza Coffee Memorial Hospital after an illness of several weeks. Funeral services will be conducted at the church this afternoon at three o'clock by Dr. Wayne P. Todd, assisted by the Rev. James K. Thompson and Rev. J.V.C. Summerell. Burial will be at the Florence Cemetery.

The son and grandson of Presbyterian ministers, Dr. Hollingsworth was born in Atlanta, Georgia and spent his early life in West Point, Georgia, and Lafayette, Alabama. He was a graduate of Southwestern University, which later conferred upon him the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity, and of Union Theological Seminary in Virginia. In 1912 Dr. Hollingsworth was married to Miss Georgie Kemper Young, who died in 1946.

Prior to his call to Florence he held pastorates in Hinton, West Virginia and Greensboro, Alabama.

In 1918, Dr. Hollingsworth was called to the Florence Church, which he served continuously until his death. He was Pastor there until his retirement in 1953 and has served as Pastor Emeritus since then. In speaking of Dr. Hollingsworth's ministry and community life, the Session of the Florence Church which he served declared by resolution Sunday that although he is known broadly in this community as a civic leader in various enterprises, he was primarily and essentially a servant of Christ's Church and spent a life dedicated to preaching and teaching God's word.

As a part of his Church life Dr. Hollingsworth was a past moderator of the Synod of Alabama, Presbyterian Church U.S. and several times moderator of the North Alabama Presbytery. He was a member of the Board of Trustees of Agnes Scott College, Decatur, Georgia and for many years was Chairman of North Alabama Presbytery's Home Missions Committee. In recognition of his outstanding service in the latter field, the Presbyterian manse in Russellville was named in his honor. For many years on the Youth Activities Committee of that group and was one of the organizers of the Boy Scout program in Lauderdale County. He was the first scoutmaster of Florence Troop One.

He was Chairman of the Lauderdale County Chapter, American Red Cross, for 15 years and took a leading part in the successive functions of the Associated Charities, the Community Chest and the United Fund. He was a past member and Chairman of the Board of Education of the City of Florence.

His name has been inscribed in the Florence Exchange Club's Book of Golden Deeds.

Survivors include his son, Wills Hollingsworth of New York City; his daughter, Mrs. John Hatfield of Florence; his sisters, Mrs. Alex Frazer of Lafayette, Alabama, and Mrs. Joe Trimbell of Chattanooga, Tennessee; four grandchildren, Mrs. Charles Baddley, Mary Wills Hatfield, John Hatfield and Kemper Hatfield, all of Florence; and a great-granddaughter, Elizabeth Hollingsworth Baddley.

Active Pallbearers for the service will be the members of the Session of the First Presbyterian Church. Honorary bearers will be the members of the Board of Governors of Eliza Coffee Memorial Hospital.

The family requests no flowers.

A Community Better For His Presence

The passing of Dr. D.W. Hollingsworth is mourned today by Shoals residents of several generations.

The pastor-emeritus of the First Presbyterian Church, which he ably served for 35 years-plus as regular minister, held so many lively interests that to name them all would be impossible in any single tribute.

But his work in developing the scouting program has meant years of joy to an untold number of local youngsters; his foresight as a member of the Board of Education, Board of Governor of ECM Hospital and with the American Red Cross played major roles in a busy career.

A charter member of the Florence Rotary, Dr. Hollingsworth certainly emphasized in his personal life, the Motto of Rotary.

As the beloved minister is laid to rest today by his family and friends, Florence and Lauderdale County can remember his achievements and repeat his name with honor, respect and humility.

This man gave much to his community and his community is much better off for his sacrifices.

CHAPTER V

THE FAMILY OF

NANCY HOLLINGSWORTH AND JAMES MADISON BUTLER

NANCY HOLLINGSWORTH (BUTLER) was the daughter of Aaron Hollingsworth and Ruth Rogers. b. Oct. 23, 1834, d. Jy. 13, 1915 and is buried at the Rock Spring Cemetery on Piedmont Road, Atlanta, Ga. She was m. to James Madison Butler. (See picture, page 138)

James Madison Butler was born in Newberry, County, S.C. Sept. 3, 1831. His parents were Silar Butler and Louisa ?. Silas moved his family and settled in the lower part of what is now DeKalb Co. Ga. James was just a growing boy of possibly ten years of age. Later he ran away from home with his brother Benjamin Griffin Butler and settled in the community of Smyrna Camp Ground. He was a farm laborer at first but later owned his own home. He and Nancy moved to DeKalb County, Ga. and owned a farm on the present LaVista Road.

James was a private in Co. B, 18th Georgia Infantry, during the Civil War. His card number was 45681414. He enlisted May 14, 1862, and drew his last pay check of $22.00 on Feb. 25, 1864. (Archives of Georgia, Chapter 5, File No. 53, Page 70) He was in combat in the Richmond area. When the war was over he and hundreds of valiant men walked back to their homes from Virginia.

While James was away in service Nancy held the family together with the help of her father Aaron Hollingsworth and his wife, the former Ruth Rogers. Salt for food was obtained by digging up the dirt in the smoke house, running water over it and using the salty water in which to cook the food. The only wheat bread the family ever had came to the house in Ruth's apron. Aaron ran a mill and had more access to wheat than most people did.

When the rebels came through Newton County ransacking and pillaging what ever they could find, Nancy sent her son Green to the swamp with the cow which he hid out until the soldiers were gone. A lone chicken in the yard was spared because of the pleadings of Nancy. The author's mother was the oldest girl in this family and told of the time when Atlanta was burned. She was possibly six or seven years old at the time but remembered seeing the smoke from Atlanta while it burned.

Note by author:

When Uncle Joe died I was in my teens and old enough to drive in the early days of Model T's. Uncle Joe had been living with his daughter in West End. I carried my mother to the funeral. The service was held in a small frame cottage, not too well constructed. There was a large crowd present. Along with the weight of the mourners and the casket the floor dropped to the ground. Men sitting and standing near the casket held the casket upright until it could be carried to safety. No one was hurt but a few individuals panicked.

I remember Uncle Joe in his old age with a flowing white beard and twinkling blue eyes. The few times I ever saw him was when he was visiting his daughter or with nieces and nephews living on Cheshire Bridge Road. He often rode as far as these relatives homes after church at Rock Springs Presbyterian Church. We rode three miles to church in a surrey with the fringe on top. I am sure he visited in our home too, but I don't remember that.

Note: There are other Hollingsworths in these records but the searcher left off in 1882. Those listed later do not concern the Hollingsworths who migrated to Newton County, Georgia in the 1830s and 1840s.

There are no marriage records earlier than 1903 so no help could be found from such records.

The author verified the records found in Section I of this book which were taken from Court House records from Laurens County, South Carolina.

MOTHER OF MARY ELIZABETH (?) HOLLINGSWORTH who married Aaron Hollingsworth. Relatives believe this picture is the mother of Mary Elizabeth. Her father was James Leftwich and her mother was Sally Mitchell. For Mary Elizabeth to have been a Hollingsworth, her mother would have married a Hollingsworth before or after she married James Leftwich.

ROSANNAH JANE HOLLINGSWORTH YOUNG

The author was unable to locate a picture of Rosannah Jane or of her husband Samuel Young. This picture is that of their two sons Aaron Thomas Young and his wife Maude Wallace Young (L). The other couple is the second son James Alfred Young and his wife Ruth Almedie Sims Young. There are many grandchildren and great-grandchildren. See Chapter IX, Section II and Section I, page 21.

DAUGHTERS OF GEORGE HOLLINGSWORTH G VIII

George Hollingsworth was the son of Joseph (G VII) and Rosannah Nichols. He was a brother to Aaron Hollingsworth. George married Elizabeth Jackson who mothered four children (see page 23, Section 1). The mother died while the girls were young. Margaret probably was four years old and Marthenia was one. Marthenia went to live with Aaron and his wife Ruth and Margaret was sent to live with another uncle or aunt, the identity of whom has not been determined by the author. Margaret married Benjamin Butler, son of Silas and his second wife, Louisa. Marthenia married John M. Leftwich. Both girls were called aunt by the grandchildren of Ruth and Aaron. Margaret was born July 28, 1839 and died April 5, 1933 and is buried in Smyrna Campgrounds. Martha was born December 10, 1842 and died November 25, 1914.

SECTION TWO

This index is divided into two parts. Part one includes the names of those who were born Hollingsworths. Part two is that of Related Families, or the families of Hollingsworth girls who assumed their husband's names, established their own homes and raised their own children. Each family carries a surname in capital letters and all bearing that surname are named underneath.

Every name in this book is not indexed. Many names are covered under a general heading such as Census Reports, etc. Some names may be repeated several times.

There are many children who were not named through stillborn births.

There are errors in the book and in the index. For these the author apologizes; they were unintentional.
