MEANING OF THE NAME

The surname Hollingsworth is derived from a place in north east Cheshire, of the same name, called in the Domesday Book "Holisurde," and pronounced "Hollis-worth" but probably intended to be "Hollinworth." It is in the Parish of Mottram-in-Longdendale, not far from the city of Manchester. There are two other such place names, both in Lancashire, to the north-east of Manchester. It is possible that separate families sprang from the several places, bearing the same surname. The place in Cheshire was a bare waste in the time of Domesday (1086) and the first appearance of anybody using the name as a surname is in a charter of about 1215, where "Tomas De Holinewurth" is a signatory. The two Anglo-Saxon words, Holegn (or Holyn), a holly bush or tree, and Worp (or Worde) meaning an enclosure or farmstead, are said to be the bases to the placename Hollinworth, meaning, "A farm (homestead) enclosed by holly bushes," or "Holly Farm." In later years an "s" came to be used by some families, but that has not been found as a general rule earlier than about 1620. There are now five generally used forms: Hollingsworth, Hollinsworth, Hollinworth, Hollingworth, and Hollandsworth. These are to be found in the vital records indexes of Somerset House, London, from 1837, and city and telephone directories of many large cities of the world.

INTENT OF THIS QUARTERLY

Hollingsworth Register began in April, 1965, and its purpose remains as it was then: To publish abstracts or verbatim copies of as many records of the family, world-wide, from the earliest times until the present day, as is humanly and financially possible. In the first seven volumes of 28 separate issues, about 34,000 items have appeared in this behalf, an average of about twelve hundred records or items being published in each single issue. The entire U.S. Census schedules from 1790 through 1850 for these surnames have been completed, and the 1860 census is now in progress. No other family has been thus served. About one million pages were covered in that search alone.

The Mystery of Hubbard Church Stearns

by Harry Hollingsworth

Do you remember reading in our first issue and later in the issue of September, 1972 about one Hubbard C. Stearns? He, you see, was the first owner of a dictionary (published in New York in 1828) which was in the possession of our ancestor, Frederick Hollingsworth, at least by February 8, 1835. That is the date Frederick inscribed on a fly-leaf at the front, underneath the signature of Stearns. Until I visited Salt Lake City in July Stearns was a complete mystery. I had searched all the census, 1790-1850, and more than half the way through the 1860 schedules, without finding him. (Once I found a Hubbard Stevens whose surname was carelessly written! Imagine my agony to discover it was not the man!) My friend Jim Ille (pronounced like isle) located him at last, in "Genealogy and Memoirs of Isaac Stearns and His Descendants" by Mrs. Avis Stearns Van Wagenen, (1901) beginning on page 303. What a thrill. It must be the same man who owned the book.

According to this genealogy, Hubbard Church Stearns was born Feb. 22, 1809, in New York, and died April 5, 1879 at Cleveland, New York. He was at first a joiner by trade, but later was a boarding house keeper in Utica, Oneida County, but later of Cleveland, New York. He first married Eunice Clarissa Curtiss, on Jan. 5, 1831, and, second, Mrs. Deborah (Bowen) Paddock, a widow, of Cleveland, on Dec. 20, 1855. No issue by either marriage. He was one of a family of 9 children born to John Stearns and his wife Abigail Olds, who married at Otsego, N.Y. in 1800. According to this genealogy, which I compared with early works like the New England Register, and town histories and vital records, as well as the Olds (Ould-Oulde) Genealogy by Edson B. Olds (1915) which purposes to trace Hubbard Stearns' mother's ancestors back to Sherborne, Dorsetshire, England, Hubbard was of very notable ancestry. He was a cousin (of what degree I know not) of President Calvin Coolidge, and possibly of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, to name but a couple. The ancestor, Isaac Stearns, or Sternes, is said to have come from Stoke Nayland, Suffolk, and was in Watertown, Colony of Massachusetts, by the early 1630s. (See Savage: Genealogical Dictionary of New England.) The line thence traces to Samuel², John³, John⁴, Aaron⁵, John⁶, Hubbard Church Stearns⁷. I will report more about this, depending upon the outcome of my frantic researches! Thus far, as with so many printed genealogies which give no proof references, I have been able only to verify a small portion of the history of H. C. Stearns I repeated above. I searched the U.S. Census schedules from 1790 through 1880, covering the city of Utica time and again, without finding him! Neither could he be found at Cleveland, Constantia, Oswego County, New York, or in Summer Hill, Cayuga County, or Norwich, Chenango County, or any of the places where his brothers, sisters or parents were said to have lived! I did not even find them, in some cases! However, though the genealogy said that John Stearns settled at Utica in 1845, the 1850 census shows him living in the town of New Hartford, a short distance to the south! His brother Zenas D. Stearns is with his parents, with wife Maria and child. But no Hubbard C. Stearns has yet been found!

I located his sister, Betsy, wife of Peter Hatfield, where the book said she should be, at Summer Hill, in Cayuga County in 1850. I also found his sister Sophronia, wife of Isaac Farrell, in the directory for Norwich, Chenango County 1869/70. John Stearns (Stirnes) the father was found in the town of Otsego, Otsego County, in the 1800 schedules, which is where the genealogy claims John married Abigail, daughter of Daniel Olds. Daniel Olds is seen on the same page. But after that the light progressively fades on our subject. Sister Clarissa, wife of Willis Sperry, a blacksmith of Summer Hill, Cayuga County, was not to be found. The other surviving sister, Abigail Catherine, is supposed to have lived at Homer, in Cortland County. If she married, her husband's name is not shown in this genealogy. I checked printed histories of all the counties in question with little result.

According to the genealogy, Hubbard Stearns would not appear as a head of family in the census until 1840, having married first in 1831. I have read - thoroughly, I hope - that schedule, not only for New York, but the whole United States! The same is true for 1850, and I finished 1860 for New York some years ago. I must have missed him three times! Remember, however, I was looking for Hollingsworths mainly, and moving swiftly.

However I come to the final solution of where Hubbard Church Stearns lived at any given census, the following are my speculations: He was probably named for a man called Hubbard Church, whom I found as a head of family in the town of Volney, Oswego County, which had been in Oneida County. This man is found in 1820 and 1830. His name is also the subject of several queries in the old Boston Transcript columns.

Otsego, Oneida, Oswego and Cayuga Counties are in mid state, and surround Madison County! This is what thrilled me to contemplate when Jim Ille handed me the book. Samuel Hollinsworth came to the town of Eaton, in Madison County, in 1808, with the Tackaberrys, Kearons, Mars-halls, Byrnes, and Tukes and others, "Irish Protestants" from the counties of Wexford and Wicklow, and established the Irish Settlement. Sam was one of the few in the party who established an Episcopal Church. The rest were Wesleyan Methodists. Pratt's Hollow was their village. It is not far across Oneida Lake from Cleveland, New York! Frederick Hollingsworth was in Cincinnati, Ohio, in 1830-31, and had land in eastern Clermont County, Ohio in the same period. Where he lived between then and the time he married Elizabeth Brown at La Porte, Indiana, April 17, 1836, is possibly about to be cleared up. This is, provided he received the dictionary directly from the hand of Hubbard C. Stearns! (Many New York people from that vicinity went through northern Ohio and Indiana, settling in northern Illinois, during the thirties. It's possible the book was brought by a perfect stranger to Indiana or Ohio and given to Hollingsworth.) Did Frederick journey to Madison County, New York to visit Sam Hollinsworth, Michael Tuke, Jim Tackaberry and the rest, between 1832 and 1836? Did he there meet Hubbard C. Stearns, stopping at the latter's boarding house? Did the kindly proprietor generously give Hollingsworth the dictionary, especially because it had helps for Irish citizens to overcome their peculiar accents? Sam Hollinsworth, according to my research, would have to be Frederick's first cousin, son of his father's oldest brother Thomas Hollinsworth of Tomduff, Killenagh, (Established Church parish of Ballycánéw) Co Wexford, Ireland.

That seems like some kind of proof that Frederick Hollingsworth obtained the old book (still in possession in 1964 of a granddaughter) while visiting his own relations. However, there is also the possibility that it came from his wife's family! I have never solved the question as to origin of Jacob Brown, New York or New Jersey. I can trace him from 1825 onward, and there is virtually no possibility he was in New York after 1825. But he could have had close kinsmen who subsequently emigrated to Ohio or Indiana in the 1830s. His first wife, my ancestor, is entirely unknown. Was she related to the Stearns family? Is it just a coincidence that Jacob's son Zachary Taylor Brown married Harriet E. Ensworth, from New Hartford, Oneida County, where John and Abigail Stearns spent their last days? (Daughter of Chester Ensworth, of Lewis, Nehemiah, who came to New Hartford from Canterbury, Conn., in 1792.)

All very genealogical appetite-whetting speculation. From this approach, unprovable. In weighing the two, I favor the former. After failing to locate Hubbard C. Stearns in the later census schedules, I started seriously covering the 1830 for John his father. Thus far, I have failed to find him in any of the counties in question. Very puzzling.

Hubbard Church Stearns was about seven years younger than my great great granddad, Frederick Hollingsworth. See their signatures in HR Vol. 8, opposite page 92. It is, from this fact, rather doubtful if Stearns was a hotel proprietor on his own at the age of 21 to 24; but he probably was a clerk in a hotel. His handwriting needs no improvement.

One speculation has been swept away forever, namely, that Hubbard C. Stearns was perhaps a relative of the Sterne family of Ballycanew, Co. Wexford, with whom my Hollingsworths, Frederick's grandparents, had some land dealings. That could never be so.

The bitterest pill to swallow in this present case is that I was able, in a brief few minutes - less than one hour - to chart many, many ancestors for the formerly unknown Hubbard Church Stearns, whereas, in over fifteen gruelling years, I have barely been able to guess at the names of the grandparents of Frederick Hollingsworth, not to mention the parents' names, which I can only suppose are right.

Jacob Brown in Trouble!

From a frustrating theme, we pass over to a much brighter one. In recent months, the Genealogical Society of Utah has been filming the court records of many important counties in Ohio. Among them: Trumbull, Columbiana, Washington and Morgan. The last named was the home of Jacob Brown, father-in-law of Frederick Hollingsworth, in the 1820s. He married his second wife, Mary Ann Keith, daughter of Peter Keith and Mariah Head his wife (once written Mead in one record), by Jonathan Hughes, J.P. on Sept. 18, 1825. This is the earliest record I ever found for Jacob. His first wife had died a few years before, after the birth of her only child, Elizabeth Brown (b. June 20, 1819 or 1820 at New Lisbon, now Carmichaels, Greene County, Pennsylvania). A couple of years after marriage he moved to Damascus, now Henry Co., Ohio. All the basic records of Morgan County had already been searched in the early sixties by correspondence with the helpful clerks; marriages and wills, also in films of D.A.R. typescripts later. So I was desperate to see if there really was anything left which would yield any clue. The Common Pleas records, I knew, were the last chance, and I really had to wait to see the films of these records - over fifteen years! The tax duplicates, and county originals also were more recently searched. But it seemed that there was little hope to tie Jacob Brown to any of his relations.

Imagine my surprise to look at the general index to court cases and to see:

Nathaniel Chapman v. Jacob Brown - 1826
The State of Ohio v. Jacob Brown = 1826

On arrival in Salt Lake City at the Genealogical Society, I put the films on the reader to see the actual minute books and found:

Dec. Term 1826

The State of Ohio)
vs)
Jacob Brown)

) Indictment for Assault and Battery on the body of Nathaniel Chapman. This day came the prosecuting attorney on the part of the State and the defendant in his own proper person and persisting in his former plea of not guilty thereupon came a jury to wit William Montgomery, Ezekiel Cole, John Diller, Elias Raney, Senr, James McLane, John Scott, Samuel Bagley, Patten Phearson, William Briggs, Sylvanus Olney, Barzilla Coburn and Job Armstrong who being elected tried and sworn the truth in the premises to speak upon their oath do say we the jury find the defendant Guilty in manner and form as is in the declared Indictment set forth and alledged. Whereupon it is considered by the court now here that for such his offence he make his fine to the State by the payment of twenty dollars fine and costs of prosecution and be confined in the jail of this County for the term of ten days and during that time to be fed on bread and water only.

That was the final outcome. Believe it or not, many timid ancestor hunters would roll up in a ball and hide for a week if they found out that one of their illustrious ancestors spent 10 days in the can! But I was thrilled! Not at contemplating Jacob's guilt and bad and dangerous temper (which I already had heard about in the story of his killing three Indians with a hickory broom handle) but just to see at last a record that he was alive and well in 1826 in Morgan County, Ohio!

After this I searched backward to see the earlier entries, and found:

May Term 1826

The State of Ohio)
vs)
Jacob Brown)

) Indictment for assault and battery on the body of Nathaniel Chapman. Plea Not Guilty and continued- This day came the defendant with Adam Keith and Joseph Shirley who severally acknowledged themselves to owe unto the State of Ohio the sum of threé hundred dollars each to be levied on their several goods & chattels lands and tenements to the use of said State if default be made on the condition following, to wit That if the above bound Jacob Brown shall personally appear on the first day of the next Term of the Court of Common Pleas of this County then and there to answer unto a bill of indictment found against him for an assault and battery on the body of Nathnl Chapman and abide the judgment of the Court and not depart without leave then this recognizance shall be void and of none effect otherwise to remain in full force and virtue in law.

This is followed immediately by a Recognizance of Witnesses, Lot Gard, Nathaniel Chapman, Daniel Williams, Michael Keith, and Nathan Newton, sworn that they owed the State fifty dollars each in the same case.

Well, nothing in the above is of any great import, except that the names of the others involved prove it is my Jacob Brown in question. Adam Keith, Joseph Shirley, Michael Keith and Nathan Newton were all his brothers-in-law, being either brothers or brothers-in-law to his second wife Mary Ann Keith. He had only just married her in September of 1825! But in the following item, from the Appearance Docket, is the singular clue which seems to confirm, though it by no means proves, my theory about Jacob's parentage. See if you can spot it:

Did you notice the grand clue? Yes: John Brown! I waited fifteen years to see that name involved with Jacob's. I assume this is Jacob's father, but possibly his brother. Jacob married into the Keith family of Centre Township near McConnellsville. One John Brown came to that same area in 1824 and died at an advanced age in 1841. The 1840 census shows his age as 80 to 90, and in earlier ones as "Senior." His will, the first Brown will in the books, shows he had four children, Sarah, Christina, John and Jacob, to whom he gave each but a dollar! He gave everything to his wife Mary, a much younger woman, who was probably not the mother of any of those named. I now am convinced - warning you readers at the same time not to assume this as any proof - that My Jacob Brown is the same Jacob Brown named in the will. All other known Jacobs have seemingly been eliminated. The name Downer above refers to the name of the State's attorney.

In the Appearance Docket also is more detail about the Nathaniel Chapman (Attorney Downer) versus Jacob Brown (Attorney Heanick or Hearick?) in May Term 1826. Trespass was the charge. Damage $500. Summons issued May 9th 1826 directed to S.A. Barker Sheriff - Returned served - June 10th 1826 Declaration filed Decr. Term 1826 Continued - Jany 6th 1827 Plea filed April 3rd 1827 Replication filed April Term 1827 Non suit & Judgt against Plaintiff (Chapman) for costs - etc. Costs $9.59 In this one, Chapman simply failed to show up and non suit resulted!

April Term 1827

Nathaniel Chapman)
vs) Trespass Jacob Brown) This day came the defendant (Brown) by Samuel Herrick his attorney and the plaintiff being three times solemnly called to come into Court and presecute his said suit against the defendant came not but became Non Suit. Whereupon it is considered by the Court now here that the defendant recover against the plaintiff his costs in this behalf expended. Notice of Appeal by Plaintiff.

But I could find nothing further on this case. Had Jacob scared poor Chapman away from Court? Could be! There were eleven brothers or brothers-in-law of Mary Brown who might help do it. The pictures I have of Jacob in his late sixties indicate he would probably pound an enemy into the ground with his fist! A mean old cuss who would beat all eleven of his sons if one of them did a bad deed! (If they refused to tell him who it was!)

There are other page numbers, other books, referred to in the Index to these two cases, but evidently these books were not put on film. I of course intend to see what they say. The testimony of John Brown, his age, and possible stated relationship to defendant Jacob Brown is what I aim for! That may be too much to even hope for. Most records of such cases were even more meagre than the above.

In other cases, the Shirleys and Keiths were always in court, it seems. Later, Nathaniel Chapman was back, involved with Mariah Keith, Jacob Brown's mother-in-law. It seems he (Chapman) had spoken maliciously of her and she sued him for it.

The Chapmans were not good neighbors to the Browns or Keiths. Maybe this is why, less than a year later, Jacob and his wife's parents removed to Damascus in Williams County!

The Victorious A's and Al Hollingsworth:

Even before the Oakland A's won the American League Baseball Pennant or their third World Series in a row, the name of Al Hollingsworth was heard in connection with the team. We'll try to get some more information about him. Does any reader have anything about him? (See HR 8:11, he played for the old St. Louis Browns.)

A Constitutional Right to Work Amendment:- Treason?

E D I T O R I A L

Your editor regrets to be very late with this issue of Hollingsworth Register. This is the first time, in ten years, thank Heaven. We hope it will not happen again! This is due solely to a strike by drivers and mechanics, against the Southern California Rapid Transit District, throughout a four county area in the state. It began on August 12th, and ran about 64 days, finally ending on October 19th! This editor was (and is) at the mercy of public transportation, both to and from libraries, and the suppliers of the equipment for printing this quarterly. Due to this, we feel called upon to speak out about organized labor and strikes in general. We know that the opinion expressed here will be at once unpopular with some of our readers. But the truth will stand, even if it stands on some toes!

This nation has long proclaimed liberty, for 198 years, to be exact. A bill of rights gives substance to the feelings of its founders, for the rights of free speech, etc. To prove that, we have, in our lifetime heard the name of God abused and cursed, seen atheists take prominent roles in government, and seen a well meaning President most outrageously treated by the media, newspapers and television alike - all with the protection of the U.S. Constitution. But how many times have you heard people speak out against organized labor with impunity? We venture to guess: Rarely. It is true: One may curse God and the President of the United States with small fear of reprisal. But if One advocates the Right to Work, he is in danger of having his head broke.

Hollingsworth Register advocates, nay, demands, a Constitutional Amendment guaranteeing all Americans the Right to Work! Is that treason? Have we now gone underground? Some will say yes. In the Los Angeles transit strike, all negotiations went forward between "management" and "labor" (viz. directors of the RTD and the drivers and mechanics) but the riders, the passengers, the fare payers, had no voice in any of the bargaining! Think of it! 650,000 people had no voice at all; yet they are the ones for whom the buses run in the first place! Therefore, this quarterly also demands a federal law, if not a county and state law, making it impossible for public employees to strike at any time!

None of the wildly gesturing politicians who spoke about this strike were heard to say a word which would damage their standing with the labor unions in question (United Transportation Union, for one). Know why? Because the politicians from coast to coast owe their shirts and shorts to labor unions and labor monopolies and labor bosses and labor lobbies! The mayor of Los Angeles offered a solution to the problem which was like an insipid sop to a starving multitude, and did not even dare to suggest measures which could curtail organized labor's power, or his own standing with them! If he did, it would ruin his future chances.

To close, we invite you to read the article Labor Drives for a "Veto-Proof" Congress in the October issue of Reader's Digest. See the danger we face from organized labor's clubbing lobbyists, and remember that Karl Marx advocated the Dictatorship of the "working class" as the final victory. A Right to Work Amendment would wreck those dreams!

Bishop Paul M. Hollingsworth Wins Achievement Award

RENO: Bishop Wins Achievement Award. For outstanding achievement in education, Dr. Paul M. Hollingsworth, bishop in Reno North Stake (Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints or Mormon, Reno, Nevada) was selected as one of the Two Thousand Men of Achievement in the world to be honored in 1971.

A distinguished achievement award was given to Dr. Hollingsworth by Ernest Kay, chairman of the board of Two Thousand Men of Achievement, London, England.

Prior to Bishop Hollingsworth's present assignment as bishop of the University Ward, Reno North Stake, he served as bishop of Reno 2nd Ward. He has also served in the stake high council. HOLLINGSWORTH WILLS IN KINGS COUNTY, NEW YORK

This is another collection made possible (in part in this particular instance) by the filming campaigns going on in New York and other eastern states under the auspices of the LDS Church. The vast collections of records to be found in the New York City area are at last being systematically filmed. The Probate Index for Brooklyn, Williamsburgh and the rest of the area of Kings County begins in the 1600s and comes all the way into this century. It was therefore possible to get all the entries of our surname from the index. But it was discovered that the actual records had only been filmed up to the 1860s! It was then necessary to order copies of the following wills at a cost of two dollars a page, making a total cost of $56.00 for the four given below. These wills are all of four brothers, close relations to our Frederick, all of them born in Co Wexford, Ireland, of wealthy milling families around Ballycanew and Mount Nebo. The father was Sam Hollingsworth and the mother, Margaret or Margaretta Furney, daughter of Henry Furney, Sr., who ran the Ballycanew Mills as chief tenant of Lord Anglesey and his successor, Andrew Thunder. They had six children who reached maturity, all of whom emigrated. The mother died at the birth of Benjamin Charles Hollingsworth, and Samuel sent his children to America with the exception of Theresa Margaret, who was left at Liverpool and remained and was married there. An endowment was made for their benefit by their Furney relations prior to emigration. All of them were successful in their new climate, and you can attest to this fact by the amount of the estate of Loftus Hollingsworth, which startled your editor to read. Your editor purchased the xerox copies of the original wills in every case except that of Loftus, who died in New Jersey, this being an exemplified copy.

(1) I Benjamin C. Hollingsworth of the City of Brooklyn, County of Kings and State of New York; being of sound mind and memory do make publish and declare the following to be my Last Will and Testament hereby revoking and declaring to be null and void all former last wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

FIRST: I order and direct that all my just debts and funeral and testamentary expenses be paid by my Executors hereinafter named as soon after my decease as may be practicable.

SECOND: I give devise and bequeath all the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, both real and personal of whatever nature and kind and wheresoever situate unto my Executrix and Executors hereinafter named or such of them as shall qualify as such and the survivors of them or their successors IN TRUST nevertheless to and for the following purposes namely; to take possession of the same and to invest and keep the same invested in good and safe securities, and to receive the rents, income, dividends interest and profits thereof, and apply the same as follows that is to say: 1st out of the said rents income dividends interest and profits; to apply so much thereof as shall be necessary to keep in good and marketable condition and repair all real Estate of which I may die seized and possessed and also to pay all charges for insurance taxes water rates and assessment which may from time to time be levied or imposed upon the same; 2nd Ort of the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, to pay over to my niece MARY JOSEPHINE LOCKITT daughter of William Lockitt of the City of Brooklyn, upon attaining the age of twenty-one years the sum of Two thousand five hundred Dollars to have and to hold the same to her, her heirs executors and administrators for ever. Provided however that in the event of the death of said Mary Josephine Lockitt before attaining the age of twenty one years, then and in that event said sum of Two thousand five hundred Dollars shall fall into and become a part of my residuary estate. 3rd (Identical clause) I direct them to pay over to Elizabeth Flanagan of the City of Brooklyn, sister of my former partner Henry Flanagan the sum of FIFTEEN DOLLARS per month as long as she shall live and upon the death of said Elizabeth Flanagan said payments shall cease... 4th I direct my said Executrix and Executors to divide the said balance of the rents income dividends interest and profits so received by them into two equal parts; to set apart and pay over unto my beloved wife JOSEPHINE HOLLINGSWORTH one of said equal parts for her sole use and benefit, for and during her natural life...I direct my said Executors to pay over unto my brother LOFTUS F. HOLLINGSWORTH of North Plainfield, Somerset County, New Jersey (in event of his wife's death.) 5th The other said equal part...to my brother EDMOND V. (3) I, HENRY S. HOLLINGSWORTH of the Borough of Brooklyn, City of New York, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, and desirous to settle my worldly affairs whilst I have strength and capacity, to make and publish this my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and making void all former Wills by me at any time heretofore made.

First. I direct my executors to pay all my just debts, Liabilities and funeral expenses.

Second. I give and devise my real and personal property, in equal shares, to all my children, and to the issue of any deceased child, such issue to receive the share which his, her or their parent would have received if living.

Third. I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my brother LOFTUS F. HOLLINGSWORTH and my sons DANIEL H. HOLLINGSWORTH and BENJAMIN C. HOLLINGSWORTH, executors, jointly and severally of this my Last Will and Testament and so as in case of the death of one or more of them, the survivor and survivors of them shall be sole executors of this my said Will. I also give to each of them all the power and depose in each of them all and every trust I have given to them jointly and provided and so far as he who shall act have the consent of the others who may act. And I hereby authorize and empower my executors and the survivor of them to sell and dispose of any real estate and personal property belonging to my estate at such time and in such manner as they shall deem best, and execute and deliver deeds thereof.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 16th day of December, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four.

8. Isabella M. Capstick, daughter, 162 Spencer St., Brooklyn.
9. Loftus F. Hollingsworth, one of the executors named in said will, residing at Scotch Plains, New Jersey.

All above named are of sound mind and are of full age. That decedent left no widow and no other child or children, no adopted child or children or issue of any deceased child or children, no father or mother. Dated Brooklyn, N.Y. March 16, 1905. Abram Shlivek, Commissioner of

(4) IN THE NAME OF GOD, AMEN, I, LOFTUS F. HOLLINGSWORTH, residing at Scotch Plains, in the State of New Jersey, being of sound mind and memory but aware of the uncertainty of this life, do make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, in manner following, that is to say:

FIRST: I direct my executors to pay all my just debts and my funeral expenses.

SECOND: I give and bequeath to the Methodist Episcopal Church at Scotch Plains, New Jersey, the sum of three hundred dollars ($300.) to be used by the Trustees thereof for the purpose of making repairs to the church property, and for no other purpose.

THIRD: I give and bequeath to my sister, Theresa Whitney, now residing at Liverpool, the sum of one thousand dollars ($1000).

FOURTH: I give and bequeath to my son William E. Hollingsworth the sum of three thousand dollars ($3000.); also my watch, chain and locket, horses, harness, robes, wagons and sleighs, located in New Jersey.

FIFTH: I give and bequeath to my daughter Agnes Hollingsworth the sum of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000); to my daughter Louisa M. Hollingsworth the sum of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000.); and to my daughter Nellie E. Hollingsworth the sum of twenty five thousand dollars ($25,000.) I also give and bequeath to my daughter Nellie E. Hollingsworth all my household furniture.

SIXTH: To the end that my three daughters named in the last paragraph may be provided with a convenient and comfortable home, I direct that my executors and trustees hereinafter named purchase such house and lot, to cost not exceeding seventy five hundred dollars ($7500.) as my said three daughters may select, and cause the title thereof to be vested in my said daughters as joint tenants and not as tenants in common; and in case my said daughters may not select such a property, but shall wish to have a new house erected, then I direct my said executors and trustees to purchase such building lot as my said daughters may select and erect thereon a small modern house with all improvements according to plans to be approved by my said daughters, at a total cost, however, not to exceed seventy five hundred dollars ($7500.). In case a lot be purchased and house erected thereon, the title is to be vested in my said daughters as joint tenants and not as tenants in common.

SEVENTH: All the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, of whatsoever kind or nature, and wheresoever the same may be situate, I give and devise to my executors, in trust, nevertheless, for the uses and purposes following:

(a) I direct my trustees to divide my estate, including the moneys amounting in the aggregate to three thousand dollars ($3000.) by me heretofore advanced to my son Loftus Hollingsworth and any notes and evidences of debt signed by him after the date hereof, into as many shares as I leave children surviving me and children who have died leaving issue surviving me, and I direct them to pay over to each of my children who survive me one of such shares. Such sums of money which I have advanced and which I may hereafter advance to my son Loftus shall be part of his share, and he is to receive under this bequest only so much more as his share of the residue of the whole of my estate as may exceed the said advancements.

(b) If any of my children have died leaving lawful issue surviving me, I direct my trustees to divide the share which such deceased child would have received if living, into as many parts as there are children of such deceased child surviving me, and I direct my trustees to pay over one of those respective parts to each of such children who is twenty one years of age, and if any of such children of a deceased child is under the age of twenty one years, I direct my trustees to hold the respective parts of such minor children and collect the income and profits of such parts and pay over the same to such children or to the guardian or surviving parent of such children, in the discretion of the trustees; and my trustee shall pay over the respective parts to such children as reach the age of twenty one years. If any of the children of a deceased child survive me and die under the age of twenty one years I give his, her or their share to their surviving brothers and sisters; but if such children who died leave no brothers or sisters surviving them, I give its part to my children and to the issue of such of them as may have died, giving such issue the share of that part which his, her or their parent would have received if living.

EIGHTH: I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my sons Frank Hollingsworth and Samuel Hollingsworth and my daughter Louisa M. Hollingsworth, executors of this my last will and testament, and the trustees of the trusts contained therein. I also give to each of them all the power and repose in each of them all and every trust given to them jointly, provided and so far as he who shall act have the consent of the others who may act. In case of the death of either of my executors and trustees, then I direct the survivors or survivor to at once appoint in writing some suitable person to act in the place of the deceased as executor and trustee so that the trust of my said will may be fully carried out; and it is my will that any person so appointed have the same rights, powers and duties as my said executors and trustees or the survivors of them.

And I hereby authorize and empower my executors and trustees and the survivor of them and their successors to sell and dispose of any real estate and personal property belonging to my estate, at such time and in such a manner as they shall deem best for the purposes of the trusts and the interests of my estate, and to invest the same in good interest or dividend paying stocks, or upon bond and mortgage, and that they change invest and re-invest all trust securities and investments whenever and so often as they shall deem necessary.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this nineteenth day of June, nineteen hundred and eleven.

Loftus F. Hollingsworth. (L.S.)

Signed in presence of
Mary E. Walsh, Scotch Plains, and Paul Q. Oliver, Westfield, N.J.

A Codicil was written, dated 18 Sept. 1916. Here is a summary:

He raised his bequest to the M.E. Church to $500. His sister Theresa Whitney had died, and he gave the $1000. to her son James Whitney of Liverpool. He raised his bequest to daughter Nellie to forty-five thousand dollars ($45000) and gave her all his furniture as before. He revoked the sixth paragraph of his will and gave his three daughters his homestead property dwelling house, outbuildings and about 3 acres of land in North Plainfield Township, Somerset County, NJ. He nominated his sons Albert D. Hollingsworth and Samuel Hollingsworth and daughter Louisa to be executors. He changed the 7th paragraph of his will to the extent that he wanted all notes due from his son Loftus to be cancelled and not deducted from his share. He had given cheques and money to his daughters Agnes, Louisa M. and Nellie E. from time to time and did not want these to be deducted from their share under the residuary clause. Codicil witnessed by Edith Jahn, Scotch Plains and Paul Q. Oliver of Westfield, N.J.

Petition was presented by Albert D. and Samuel Hollingsworth, both of Scotch Plains, New Jersey, on Jan. 5, 1931, to Kings County Surrogate's Court, stating that Loftus F. Hollingsworth had died at Scotch Plains on March 25, 1921 (sic) and that he had personal property in Kings Co. consisting of an interest in the trusts created in the will of Benjamin C. Hollingsworth who died a resident of Kings County on Jan. 6, 1892. The will and codicil of Loftus Hollingsworth had been proved on May 4, 1921 at the Surrogate's Court in and for the County of Somerset, State of New Jersey, etc., and that decedent was not a resident of the State of New York for upwards of fifty years before death nor engaged in business there for approximately twenty-five years before death; that the personal property of decedent does not exceed Eighty thousand dollars ($80,000.)

As you readers can see, it is often wise to order a copy of (or to make a personal examination of) the petition for Administration or for Letters testamentary, along with the will. The above wills do not give names of all heirs, but the petitions in most cases do. In fact, the original petition for Loftus' will was filed in New Jersey in 1921 and did contain all of the names of the heirs.

A Remarkable Discovery in Kennett Minute Book:

Thomas Hollingsworth-married Ann:

Children: Humphrey, born 9th month (Nov.) 27, 1687
Thomas, born 7th month (Sept.) 19, 1691
John, born 9th month 4, 1693
Ann, born 2nd month (April) 27, 1696

These entries are found in the back of the men's minutes of Kennett or Newark Monthly Meeting, New Castle County, (now) Delaware, and Chester County, Pennsylvania. Your editor found this on Salt Lake film 562,991 which is not a film of the original books. A note states that the children down to, and including Ann, were all born in "Bolaay, England." In checking Bartholomew's Gazetteer of the British Isles, we found no such place listed. This is not by any means exhaustive, of course. But the name "Boley" is the name of many townlands in Ireland. It is very puzzling. This has never been brought to our attention before. Why are they entered in Quaker books in America? What became of them. They cannot represent children of Valentine Hollingsworth, nor do they seem to refer to Thomas Hollingsworth (sometimes with the "s") and wife Martha Scampton, of Brick Lane, London, married in 1678, but it is possible this man married a second time to Ann. Can anyone help?

T H E A T K I N S O N S

Valentine Hollingsworth's eldest son Henry returned to Ireland and there married Lydia Atkinson at Lurgan Monthly Meeting, Co Armagh, in the north of Ireland, 6mo (August) 22, 1688. In our Sept. 1969 issue we mentioned that her father was Stephen Atkinson of Ballinacor in the parish of Seagoe, County Armagh. Here are a few notes to help you who would like to get started searching her ancestry.

First it should be noted that we have found no definite statement in any record that Lydia was the daughter of Stephen. But there was no other Atkinson family among Friends who would fit, and Lydia's eldest son was named Stephen Hollingsworth. Besides, two other Atkinson girls of Lurgan Monthly Meeting were labeled in the records as Stephen's children. One was Abigail. Henry & Lydia Hollingsworth named one of their children by this name.

The transcript of Hearth Tax, Co Armagh, 1664, lists Steeven Atkinson and Edward Atkinson at the townland of Ballynacor. Edward died in the late 1660s and his burial is listed in Lurgan book. He might have been Stephen's father. The known children of Stephen and Isabel Atkinson were:

- (1) Sarah Atkinson, born 12th month (Feb) 18, 1656/7 at Ballinacor, Seagoe Parish. She married John Robson, son of Francis and Isabel Robson of Tamnaficarbett, Seagoe, who was born at Hillsboro, Co Down, Ireland, in 1650. They had the following ten children, all according to Lurgan Birth & Death Book:

1. Isabel Robson, born 11mo. 24, 1676.
2. Joseph Robson, born 5mo. 31, 1678.
3. Mary Robson, born 12mo 12, 1679.
4. Hannah Robson, no dates in book. Buried 8mo. 14, 1685.
5. Francis Robson (first), born 11mo. 28, 1683; bur. 12mo 1689.
6. John Robson, born 10mo. 23, 1685; bur. 12mo. 1689.
7. Sarah Robson, born 1st mo. 26, 1694; bur. 2mo. 28, 1705
8. Francis Robson (second), born 12mo. 4, 1695.
9. Samuel Robson, born 10mo. 22, 1697.
10. Stephen Robson, born 10mo. 18, 1699; buried 5mo. 25, 1700.
- ?11. John Robson (second?) buried 9mo. 17, 1714 aged 23 or born 1691.

John Robson Sr., probably same who died 9mo. 29, 1722.

Francis Robson the father, was born at Facebee, Yorkshire in 1607 son of John and Elizabeth Robson, and came into Ireland when but young, according to Lurgan Book. The Muster Roll of Armagh, 1630, (Brit. Mus. Addl. Mss.) folio 31 reverse shows Francis Robson with no arms (arms of war) on estate of 2500 acres of William Brownlow along with Peter Harland (pike) and James Atkinson, sword and callever.

- (2) Lydia Atkinson, birthdate not known to writer. Born at Ballinacor, Seagoe, most probably another child of Stephen and Isabel. She was still living in 1739 in America. She married Henry Hollingsworth in 1688. (See WR 5:91) Six children.

- (3) Abigail Atkinson, birthdate not given, daughter of Stephen, married, 8mo 11, 1692 at Lurgan, George Bell, parish of Ballinderry, Co Antrim, son of Archibald and Anne (Purvis) Bell, who came from Arkenholme, Scotland to Ireland. George Bell was born in 4th month, 1662, at Drumullan in the Parish of Benburb, Co Armagh. Children:

1. Ruth Bell, born 8mo 1, 1693, Lackey, Par. of Ballinderry, Co Antrim.
2. Richard Bell, born 2mo 16, 1695, Corntry, same Parish.
3. Harriet Bell, born 12mo 28, 1696. Same.
4. Archibald Bell, born 12mo 22, 1698. Same.
5. George Bell, born 1st mo. 2, 1700 at Ballinacor, Co Armagh.
6. Sarah Bell, born 3 mo. 25, 1703; died 2mo 2, 1704.

Sarah Atkinson married John Robson at Lurgan Meeting 1st mo. 29, 1676/77. Drumullan, birthplace of George Bell, is written Drumcullen also. All the children of John and Sarah Robson were born in the townland of Tamnificarbet.

As to the ancestors of Stephen and Edward Atkinson of Ballinacor, Parish of Seagoe, Co Armagh, we have not processed any research. In Scotforth or Scotford, Lancashire, England, not very far away, another family of this name became Friends. Some of its members emigrated to America, notably in the doom ship "Britannia" in the summer of 1699. Aboard same ship was the editor's ancestor, John Scott, from The Hill, and formerly of Longhamrow, Sawley Monastery, Yorkshire. These Atkinsons, William, Cephas, Christopher, settled in Chester and Bucks Counties, Penna., and intermarried with the Hodgsons, who came from Ireland. This far, we have found no connection. Samuel Stanfield of Lurgan went to America. He intermarried into families descended from a Stanfield family from Cheshire, all Quakers, that is to say, his daughter Alice married James Fisher whose mother's mother was a daughter of Francis Stanfield from Cheshire.

Order by Council of State..... Authorising Sir John Clotworthy to raise and transport to America, 500 natural Irishmen - April 1653. (From Public Record Office, Northern Ireland, D. 207.) This is quite a find. It may explain the large number of men with real Irish sounding names - Murphy, Macdanniell, etc. - to be found in Maryland prior to the year 1700.

North Caroline Census Additions - 1820

We keep doing this over and over until we get it right! Back issues of HR have added two Hollingsworths to this state's 1820 lists. But in recent months a published index to the 1820 schedules showed that we had missed still others. See HR 2:59 for original tabulation of 16 heads of families. Later we found Henrey Hollingsworth on p. 310 of Robeson County, and Joel in the 1820 Tax for Wake County. Total 18. Now from the index we located:

19. John Hollandsworth 200110-00100-1001 Page 177 Cumberland

So we only missed one, but he has a population of five. Sorry.

youngest daughter of SAML HOLLINGSWORTH Esq and MARTHA his wife of Ince Hall Lancashire, and sister to the Revd A G H. HOLLINGSWORTH Vicar of this Parish she died Augt 30th 1835 aged 19.

Thou art gone to the grave but we will not deplore thee
For God was thy ransom thy guardian and guide,
He gave thee, he took thee, and he will restore thee,
For death has no sting since the Saviour has died.

ABERDEEN (Special) - Services for Cleve Hollingsworth, 89, will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday at Paine Memorial Methodist Church with burial in Howell Cemetery with Lann Memorial Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Hollingsworth, who was a former supervisor of the second district of Monroe County, died Monday in the Aberdeen-Monroe County Hospital. He was a native of Monroe County and had lived in the Athens Community most of his life. He was a retired farmer and a member of Paine Memorial Methodist Church.

Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Alice Wardie Gill Hollingsworth of Aberdeen; five daughters, Mrs. W.C. Gwynn of Marietta, Ga., Mrs. E.W. Sullivan of Memphis, Mrs. W. F. Johnson of Jacksonville, Fla., Mrs. Frank Snare of Sheresport, La., and Mrs. Russell Nodd, Jr., of Smyrna, Ga.; three sons, J.C. Hollingsworth of Forrest City, Ark., L.D. Hollingsworth of Potts Camp, Bobby Hollingsworth of Aberdeen; five stepdaughters, Mrs. Clyde Virginia Swiney and Mrs. Tony Rubino, both of Birmingham, Mrs. Armond DeSollar of Ripley, Tenn., Mrs. O.H. Rhodes of Hattiesburg, Mrs. C.L. Tubb of Aberdeen; a stepson, Charles Bryan of Aberdeen; 13 grandchildren and 16 great grandchildren. The body will be carried to the church at 1 p.m. Wednesday. (From Daily Journal, Tupelo, Mississippi, Tuesday, July 9, 1974, courtesy of Mrs. Neola H. Cleveland, Booneville, Mississippi.)

A U N T M A G G I E

We have been informed of the death of beloved Aunt Maggie Hollingsworth of Raymond, Mississippi, earlier this year at an advanced age. We hope to have a detailed obituary for the next issue. Her name has been often in print in these columns, and is a renowned one to those who love her. Deeply regretted.

The 12th Census - 1900

In December, 1973, the schedules, with index, to the Twelfth U.S. Census, 1900, were released to the National Archives & Records Service, G.S.A. The question of the release of this census raised quite a controversy. There are restrictions on who may consult them. But your editor has made some use of them by hiring a gentleman in Washington, D.C. to extract several of his own Hollingsworth and other families. Below are all of the Hollingsworth extracts, probably the first time in print. This might technically be illegal - we really do not know - and really do not care! (They are all dead.)

(Note: Editor's two great-granduncles, brothers of Edward. Most data reported is correct. Jacob was born June 5, 1842. He was divorced and shortly after this census he re-married his 2nd wife in Green Bay and returned to Newton, Iowa. His children never knew of this fact as far as the editor knows. Olive Living was adopted legally and kept the name of Hollingsworth. She married Dan Wallace and visited the editor in 1964 when she confirmed the above information. The head here is Dr. John Samuel Hollingsworth and his wife, Addie Fidelia (Vandyke) Hollingsworth.)

A Landmark in a Well Traveled Route: Joe E. Hollingsworth's Name.

You who pass through the Trans World Airlines terminal at Los Angeles International Airport, Satellite Building 3, should stop and read the three bronze plaques at the main door. This building was dedicated Nov. 15, 1961. The contemporary civil list for the city of Los Angeles is emblazoned thereon, and on the second plaque is the list of the City Council, including, Councilman for 10th District ... Joe E. Hollingsworth.

Mr. Hollingsworth is now retired, and living in Inglewood. We spoke over the telephone not long ago. He is a descendant of Valentine Hollingsworth, Sr. The building in question is located at 300 World Way.
